[M.E.B. - The only ship that I know about coming over in 1621 to Plymouth was the "Fortune" arriving 19 Nov. 1621.

["A Brief History of the Pilgrims" from the writings of Bradford and Winslow]

The Fortune, a small vessel of 55 tons, arrived Nov. 19, 1621. She brought Robert Cushman, who returned on the Fortune to England, and 35 additional members for the colony. On the arrival of the Fortune there were 50 of the Mayflower passengers left alive. Funds being low in England, the Fortune did not bring any food to leave for her 35 passengers. "Neither had they any bedding, nor pot, nor pan, nor over many clothes." What had looked like reasonable provision for 50 people assumed a new aspect with 35 additional mouths to feed, especially as they had given some food to the crew of the ship. The Governor took an exact account of all their provision, and found that it would not hold out above 6 months at half allowance, and hardly that."

The names listed as passengers on the Fortune were evidently the heads of families,(or relatives) included: John Adams, Wm. Basset, Wm. Beale, Edw. Bumpus, Jonathan Brewster (son of Wm.), Clement Briggs, John Cannon, Wm. Conner, Robert Cushman (who ret'd. to Eng.), Thos. Cushman, Stephan Dean, Philip De le Noye, Thomas Flavell, Widow Ford, Robert Hicks, Wm. Hilton, Bennet Morgan, Thos. Morton, Austin Nicolas, Wm. Palmer, Wm. Pitt, Thomas Prince, Moses Simonson, Hugh Statie, James Steward, Wm. Tench, John Winslow (bro. of Edw.) and William Wright. Elsewhere I have found names of others: Wm. Bassett's wife, Wm. Palmer's son Wm., Thos. Flavell's son, Widow Ford's ch. Wm., Martha and John. Not counting Robert Cushman, that makes a total of 33. Probably some of the other men brought a wife or a child. If there were two Thomas Paines on board, I'm sure the elder would have been listed.

Anyway, whichever Thomas is the right one, I'll pick up the line from the Thomas^2 who settled at Eastham. "Creditable traditionary accounts that were early committed to writing in several branches of the family. say that he Ø w/his fa. of the same name when abt. 10, having ~~had~~ lost the sight of an eye by an arrow."

Thomas^2 Paine, b. abt. 1627 if arr. in 1637 is right. [I think a lot more likely than in 1621.]
d. 16 Aug. 1706, Eastham, Mass.
m. bef. Apr. 1651 - Mary^2 Snow, dau.of Nicholas^1 & Constanta/Constance^2 (Hopkins - Stephen^1) Snow
b. ca 1630 ; d. 28 Apr. 1704, Eastham, Mass.

[LCCH&G #70 Paine or Payne - Truro -- says he m. 1658; constable in Eastham 1655 and freeman 1658. As the Irish say of a man with a great versatility of talents, "He was a man of great parts." Representative, deputy, treasurer, superintendent of building the meeting-house, cooper and millwright, he seems to have been able to build a mill as easily as a barrel. He had a good education and was a splendid penman, a faculty that runs through all the generations. He retired from public service 1697, in which he had been employed nearly half a century. He had purchased a home at the South End, Boston, 1695, returned to Eastham where he died 1706.]

[LCCH&G #32 Early Settlers of Eastham - says his name first appears upon the records as a constable of Eastham in 1653, In 1655 he was mentioned as one of the 19 men then townsmen. He was propounded at the Colony Court at Plymouth in 1658 and June 1, that year, was admitted as freeman. In 1662 he was appointed with Nicholas Snow, Jonathan Sparrow and Giles Hopkins to view and lay out the meadow between Namskaket and Silver Springs, then within the limits of Eastham, to those of the inhabitants that were entitled to the same; and the same year, with Giles Hopkins, was selected a surveyor of highways. In 1664, for the first time, he was chosen deputy to the Plymouth Colony Court and a juryman. In 1667, with 11 others, he was called to investigate the cause of deaths of Robert Chappell, James Nichols and James Pidell, of Captain John Allen's company, who were put ashore at Cape Cod. The same year he was allowed by the Colonial court to select a tract of land for his use, and in June, 1669, he was allowed with Experience Michell, Henry Sampson [prob. the same person as Henry Samson] and Thomas Little, to purchase land at Namskaket, now Middleboro. [This goes on and on and on - - - -]

His wife Mary, [dau. of Nicholas Snow and granddaughter of Mr. Stephen Hopkins, one of the Pilgrims who came over in the Mayflower in 1620] to whom he was married 1650, was a woman of whom much has been said in her praise. She was "a faithful wife," "a careful mother," "a good quiet neighbor," "a diligent reader of God's holy word," and "a lover of, and attendant at God's house of worship." Her son Deacon John Paine gave an account of her last hours and death in his diary.

This account says -"sometime previous to 1695, he rem. to Boston where the records say he purchased od Thomas Stableford of Philadelphia, March 14, 1694, a homestead at the South end, paying the sum of £130. Here he was residing in 1697. Selling out this year to Eleazar Darby, he returned to Eastham, to his house at Kescayogansett, where it is supposed he spent the remainder of his life, passing away Aug. 16, 1706. His will bears date May 12, 1705. It was presented for probate Oct. 2, 1706. He mentions 7 sons: Samuel, Thomas, Elisha, John, Nicholas, James and Joseph; two daughters: Dorcas, wife of Benjamin Vickery of Hull, and Mary, wife of Israel Cole.

[LCCH&G #32 - says "Elisha m. Hannah Doane and had 10 children, naming the 3 sons - Elisha, Solomon and John - that were ministers.]

[MEB - He may have m. twice - but I believe Rebecca (from Doane Genealogy notes I have & M.D.) would be the first. I have only found 5 children for them. They may have moved to another location and so I would not find the birth records in Eastham. But as #32 also states that his wife lived to an old age, dying Dec. 19, 1758, maybe he m. a Hannah ? after Rebecca and did have 10 more children. Who knows? I don't.]

THOMAS^{1} PALMER - b. England; d. [illegible] 1669
m. 6 mo., 1643 - Ann ? , dau.of (Will) "2th of aug. 1669 b.
(Inventory) 5 Sept. 1669 d. ; bur. 22 Feb. 1685/6

He was one of the company founding Rowley, Mass., under the lead of Rev. Ezekiel Rogers; the landing was made at Salem in the autumn of 1638; the winter was spent there and in Boston; and the new town founded in April, 1639 - the act of incorporation reading as follows: "The 4th Day of the 7th month 1639 M^{r} Ezechi: Rogers plantation shalbee called Rowley."

In the "Regester of all the House Lotts in the Severall Streetes" the seventh entry under "Bradford Streete", the first street mentioned, reads: "To Thomas Pallmer, one lott containinge an acree and a halfe, bounded on the south side by John Burbanks house lott, part of it lyinge on the west side of the streete, and part of it lyinge on the east side of the streete."

He was a weaver by trade. In 1666-7 the lands in "Rowley Village," so-called, now the town of Boxford, were set out and he received 67 acres. The oldest tax-list of Rowley now extant, of date about 1662, shows Thomas Palmer to be the twenty-fourth heaviest payer out of 87, his tax being 14s., 3d. in a total levy of £47, 7s., 1d. Will "this 2th of August 1669; proved 29 Sept. 1669

b. ; d.

Mar. 1, 1757, his fa. deeded him, "his dutiful and loving son," 140 acres of land and all buildings thereon, consideration the love between them; Elizabeth, wife of Robert Park, signs the deed also. Mar. 14, 1757, he bought of Robert Park land for 160 pounds bounded by land of Moses Park, John Ayers, Joseph Ayres, Mr. Snow, Ash Swamp and Cedar Swamp, Winthrop's land. In 1759 he bought more of Robert. In 1760 he bought of Roswell Park. In 1769 he sold to Thomas Holmes of Boston, land situated on the road leading from Pawtax to Stonington. Feb. 11, 1771, he bought land at Shingle Point from Robert Stoddard, which seems to be the land he owned at death. It is said the present church of Poquetanuck stands upon this ground. Oct. 10, 1771, and May 24, 1774, his fa. deeded him land as a gift. May 24, 1776, he sold some of his land to Ebenezer Punderson. It is thought he served in the Revolutionary War, as did also his son James. He was admitted to the Separatist Church July 4, 1764, and his wife Mary, Aug. 18, 1764. Their ch. were all baptized in that ch. by the Rev. Paul Park.

PARTRIDGE

George Partridge - yeoman of Duxbury 1636

One of the most respectable yeomanry of the Colony. He came from the County of Kent, England about 1636 where he was possessed of an estate mentioned in his will. Admitted freeman 1646.

In the same year he received a grant at Powder Point and received permission from the Court to settle there and to build. The next year he was allowed 20 acres at Green Harbor path and in the following year 30 acres at Island Creek and at the same place in 1666, a lot of 40 acres more and 50 acres at Mill brook, which he sold to Thomas King, Jr. of Scituate in 1668.

JOHN^1 PEARSON - b. prob. bef. 1610, England
d. 22 Dec. 1693, Rowley, Mass.
m. - Dorcas ?, dau. of
d. 12 Jan. 1702/3

Fam. trad. says he was a native of Yorkshire, England; a carpenter by trade; ∅ from Eng. to Ipswich, then to Rowley, Mass., in 1643, bringing w/him machinery for a fulling mill, which was the 1st in this country. Supposing America had no wood that would stand water, he brought w/him cedar posts. Some of these posts were taken up about 1800 and found in good state of preservation. "The acre and half ho. lot laid out to him in the 2d div. of ho. lots, abt. 1645, was situated on east side of Holme St., so. of Richard Leighton's lot and abt. 100 rods no. of the 1st meeting ho.; this was his home until abt. 1667 when he moved to "The Mills," the chief seat of his business and property."

"Where the old county road (the Bay Road) leading from Rowley to Newbury crosses Mill river and where the fresh water mingles with the salt is the site of the 1st mills in Rowley. Here, soon after the settlement of the town, prob. as early as 1642, Thomas Nelson built a grist mill and a sawmill, and by 1643 John Pearson Had built a fulling or clothiers mill the 1st in N.E. He operated these, having purchased the grist mill and sawmill, until his death in 1693. The fulling mill continued to be operated by the Pearson family until 1809. The grist mills, later called Glen Mills, tog. w/a large landed estate, passed from fa. to son in undisturbed descent to John Pearson, who d. 1819. (These mills passed from the Pearson fam. to the Dummer fam., 1817, and were operated by them until burned in 1916, when the bus. was rem. to Newburyport.)"

He was made freeman at Rowley 26 May 1647; often moderator of town meetings; Sel. and assessor; his tax in 1660 was £1: 5s: 7d; Rep. at the Gen. Court in Boston 1678, and 7 times thereafter; ordained Dea. of the Rowley Church 24 Oct. 1686; in 1687 he with others, in resisting the tyranny of Gov. Andros, was cited to appear bef. the Court in Boston, where he was fined and imprisoned for "nearly two weeks"; in 1691 his tax was £7: 15s., the highest but one in Rowley. Inv. of his est. dated 11 Jan. 1693/4.

PERHAM'S MAINE MINERAL STORE INC.
Junction Routes 26 & 219
at Trap Corner
West Paris, Maine

Each year an estimated 90,000 people visit PERHAM'S MAINE MINERAL STORE. Established in 1919 by Stanley I. Perham, the business is being operated by Mrs. Perham and their daughter, Jane Perham Stevens, who is a Graduate Gemologist.

In the May 1957 issue of The Reader's Digest, Stan Perham was the subject of an article entitled "The Gem Man at Trap Corner". Publicity like this attracts many people from all over the world. A large museum display of Maine minerals, a unique arrangement of fluorescent material, a model of a gem tourmaline pocket and a model of a quarry are just a few of the interesting things you can see while visiting PERHAM'S.

The store had its beginning when Stanley Perham was a boy of twelve. He made a collection of all things of nature and began to sell and trade some of his duplicate pieces in order to enlarge his collection. Time passed and he settled on his real love of minerals. The store

Robert Lord cleric."

In his old age he gave his property to his two sons, Jacob and Matthew, who engaged to support their step-mother "as long as she should live," according to an agreement he had made previous to his second marriage.

We find but little upon the record concerning him. He, like all his neighbors, who were farmers, lived a quiet and uneventful life; his name is sometimes found upon the "Deeds" in the transfer or purchase of land or as witness to a will or deed, and, in one instance, as foreman of a jury of inquest.

Essex fs. Before y^{e} Hon^{ble} Jonathan Corwin Esq^{r} Judge of Probate of Wills &c June 10, 1700.

Children of Thos. and Mary (Perkins) Bradbury were:

Wymond, b. Apr. 1, 1637.
Judith, b. Oct. 2, 1638.
Thomas, b. Jan. 28, 1640.
Mary, b. March 17, 1642.
Jane, b. May 11, 1645.
Jacob, b. June 17, 1647.
William, b. Sept. 15, 1649.
Elizabeth, b. Nov. 11, 1651.
John, b. Apr. 20, 1654.
Ann, b. Apr. 16, 1656.
Jabez, b. June 27, 1658.

6 Jacob (John[1]) was born in England in 1624. He married first Elizabeth ——;[7] her father's name is not known. The time of their marriage was probably in 1648; she died Feb. 12, 1685, her age being fifty-six years. He afterwards married for a second wife, Damaris Robinson, widow of Nathaniel Robinson, mariner, of Boston. She removed to Boston after the death of Jacob Perkins, and died there, leaving property by will to several children by her first husband. The date of her death was in 1716, and her age at that time was eighty years. At the time of his marriage with the widow Robinson he made a promise to support her during her life; later in life he gave all his property into the possession of his two sons, Jacob and Matthew, on condition that they support both himself and wife during their natural lives. This will appear evident from the following extract from the deed which he gave his sons Matthew and Jacob.

20 March, 1693.

I, Sargt. Jacob Perkins, sen.

"Having grown old & decrepid and not able to manage my farm, I give the other portions of my land to my two sons Jacob and Mathew provided they support me & my now wife, with whom I made an agreement when we were married," etc., etc.

[7] Possibly the daughter of Matthew Whipple.

He mentions in his will the portions he had given each of his sons on their marriage.

He was the youngest son, and by his father's will was to come into possession of his homestead[8] and lands after his mother's death. His lands lay at the eastern part of the town near the river. He was chosen sergeant of the military company of the town in 1664, and was ever after known as sergeant, or as he wrote it "Sargent Jacob Perkins, se.," which distinguishes him from two others of the same name.

He was a farmer, and his name is often seen upon the records in the purchase and sale of farming lands. He appears also to have taken his share of the duties of a citizen. We give this facsimile of his autograph as it is found as foreman of a jury of inquest, held upon the body of a girl who was found drowned.

Sargent Jacob Perkins se

His house was struck by lightning on a Sunday in 1671, "while many people were gathered there to repeat the sermon, when he and many others were struck down, and had his waistcoat pierced with many small holes, like goose-shot, and was beaten down as if he had been dead for the present."

Sergeant Jacob Perkins died in Ipswich Jan. 27, 1699–1700, aged seventy-six years.

[8] The original house, built by the elder John, was destroyed by fire in August, [illegible] through the carelessness of a servant, who knocked the ashes from her pipe upon the thatch of an outbuilding. Another house was erected at or near the same spot which is standing at this day, though in a miserably decayed condition. The well near by has been and is still called "Jacob's well."

The names and ages of his children, the death of his wife Elizabeth, and of himself, are taken from his family bible, now in the possession of H. N. Perkins, Esq., of Melrose.

The children of Sergeant Jacob Perkins, sen., and wife Elizabeth were:

26 Elizabeth, b. Apr. 1, 1649; m. Thomas Borman, Jan. 1, 1667.
27 John, b. July 3, 1652; m. Mary Fisk; d. in 1718, æt. 67.
28 Judith, b. July 11, 1655; m. Nath. Browne, Dec. 16, 1673.
29 Mary, b. May 14, 1658; m. Thomas Wells, Jan. 10, 1669.
30 Jacob, b. Aug. 3, 1662; m. 1st, Eliz. Sparks, Dec. 27, 1684; 2d, Sarah Treadwell.
31 Matthew, b. June 23, 1665; m. Esther Burnam.
32 Hannah, b. Oct. 11, 1670.
33 Joseph, b. June 21, 1674; m. Martha Morgan, May 22, 1700.
34 Jabez, b. May 15, 1677; m. 1st, Hannah Lathrop, June 30, 1698; 2d, Charity Leonard, in 1722.

7 Lydia (John[1]) was born in Boston, and was baptized June 3, 1632, as is seen upon the records of the First Church there. She married Henry Bennet, a farmer of Ipswich, at what date is not known, but it is supposed in 1651. She is mentioned as "Lydia Bennet" in her father's will. Little is known concerning her husband. His name is sometimes seen in connection with other members of the family.

"May 12, 1675. John Perkins, Henry Bennet and others have power to act in matter of Jer. Belcher and others of Ipswich." Rec. Colony of Mass. Bay, Vol. 1, p. 36.

Henry Bennet[9] bought a farm of two hundred acres in 1654 of Jonathan Wade, in the southeastern part of Ipswich, where he lived forty years or more. This removed the family to a considerable distance from the old homestead, and may account for the infrequent mention of the name in connection with the affairs of the family.

[9] We are indebted to the research of the late John M. Bradbury, Esq., of Ipswich, for about all that is now known concerning Henry Bennet.

Lydia Bennet is supposed to have died about 1672, as Henry Bennet married a second wife not long after that time. She was Mary (Smith) Burr, widow of John Burr, who was her second husband, her first being Philip Call. She was the daughter of Richard Smith, of Shropham, Co. Norfolk, England. She died Jan. 12, 1707–8. He was living Oct. 3, 1707.

The names of five of his children are known, all by his first wife, Lydia. They were:

Jacob, b. 1651; m. Sarah ——; d. March 5, 1685–6.
John, b. in 1655: killed at Bloody Brook, Sept. 18, 1675.
William, b. 1657; living in Ipswich in 1685.
Henry, b. in 1661; m. 1st, Frances Burr; 2d, Margaret ——.
Thomas, b. ; m. Elizabeth —— about 1692; d. in 1700.

NOTE.

The foregoing individuals constitute the first two generations; that is, of John Perkins, sen., and of his sons and daughters. In giving the descendants of the three sons, to whom only the name attaches, it is proposed to take them in order of their ages.

Part I, therefore, will be devoted to the descendants of Quartermaster John Perkins.

Part II, to those of Deacon Thomas Perkins.

Part III, to those of Sergeant Jacob Perkins.

8 John (John,[2] John[1]) was born in Ipswich about 1636. He married Lydia —— about 1658, and died in 1659. Very little is known concerning him, but after his death his widow applied for administration on his estate. The Record of the March term of the Court for 1659, gives us the following:

The children of Jacob and Elizabeth (———) Perkins were:

3 (26) Elizabeth, b. April 1, 1649; m., Thomas Borman, Jan. 1, 1667.
4 (27) John, b. July 3, 1652; m., 1st, Mary Fisk; 2nd, Elizabeth Prythatch; 3d, Mary Hooper; d. 1718, at "67" yrs.
5 (28) Judith, b. July 1, 1655; m. Nath'l Browne, Dec. 16, 1673.
6 (29) Mary, b. May 14, 1658; m., 1st, Tho^s Wells, Jan. 10,(?) 1669; 2nd, John Annable.
7 (30) Jacob, b. Aug. 3, 1662; m., 1st, Elizabeth Sparks, Dec. 27, 1684; 2nd, Sarah Treadwell.
8 (31) Matthew, b. June 23, 1665; m. Esther Burnham.
9 (32) Hannah, b. Oct. 11, 1670.
10 (33) Joseph, b. June 24, 1674; m. Martha Morgan, May 22, 1700.
11 (34) Jabez, b. May 15, 1677; m., 1st, Hannah Lathrop, June 30, 1698; 2nd, Charity Leonard, 1722.

THIRD GENERATION.

3 Elizabeth (Jacob^{2}, John^{1}) was born in Ipswich, Mass., April 1, 1649. She married Thomas Boreman, son of Thomas Boreman, sen., Jan. 1, 1667.

She died April 1, 1718. He was born 1645 and died March, 1718.

He was a farmer and his name is often seen upon the records. He was one of the bondsmen for his brothers-in-law, Jacob and Matthew Perkins, at the time of their administration upon the estate of their father.

[1] The numbers in parentheses are the same as in Part I; the other numbers refer to Part III only.

Their children were:

Thomas, b. Aug. 8, 1669.
Jacob, b. June 10, 1671.
John, b. March 18, 1672–3.
And perhaps others.

4 John (Jacob[2], John[1]) was born in Ipswich, Mass., July 3, 1652. He married, first, Mary Fiske of Wenham, Mass. She was the daughter of Capt. Thomas Fiske and was born about 1655. She died Oct. 9, 1695. He married, second, Elizabeth Prythatch of Ipswich, Oct. 13, 1696. She died Jan. 2, 1710–11. He married, third, widow Mary Hooper, published April 8, 1711; married April 28, 1711. She was the widow of Samuel Hooper of Boston whom she had married Feb. 16, 1693. Her maiden name was White.

He died March 15, 1717.

He, with others, bought a large tract of land of two or three hundred acres on the borders of Wenham and Ipswich (now Hamilton) in 1693. He was a resident of Wenham and was known as Serg. John Perkins. He was a farmer. The dates of the birth of his children, who were all by his first wife, are not recorded. His estate was settled about 1720.

The children of John and Mary (Fiske) Perkins were:

12 Thomas, b. about 1689; m., 1st, Hannah Woodbury; 2nd, Elizabeth Fowler, Jan. 22, 1730.
13 Anna, b. 1692; m. [61]John Perkins of Ipswich (see part I).
14 Esther, b. Sept. 30, 1695; m. Benj. Gilbert of Ipswich, Aug. 4, 1716.
15 Rebecca, b.; m. Thos. Howe, jr., of Marlborough, April 26, 1715.
16 Mary, b.; m. Robert Quarles, pub. July 9, 1709.
17 Elizabeth, b.; m. William Rogers, pub. April 15, 1698.
18 Sarah, b.; m. John Edwards, jr., of Wenham, pub. May 29, 1709.
19 Martha, b.; probably unmarried.

PERKINS

5 Judith (Jacob[2], John[1]) was born in Ipswich, Mass., July 1, 1655. She married Nathaniel Browne, Dec. 16, 1673. (She was probably a second wife.) He was born 1645 and died in Ipswich, Mass., 1717. She was living at the time of her husband's death.

He was a soap-boiler by trade.

Their children were:

John, b.; removed to Preston, Conn.
Nathaniel, b.; m., 1st, Elizabeth, dau. of Thomas Fiske; 2nd, Lydia ——.
Elizabeth, b.; m. Wm. Stasy, 1702; d. before 1766.
Jacob, b.; d. 1769; m., 1st, —— Burnham, 1707, of Hamilton; 2nd, Elizabeth Brown, 1761, of Hamilton.
Mary, b.; m. John Hubbard, 1710.
Hannah, b.; m. Edward Cogswell.
James, b. June 1, 1685; m. Jemima Quarles; d. 1735.
And possibly Thomas and Joseph.

6 Mary (Jacob[2], John[1]) was born in Ipswich, Mass., May 14, 1658. She married, first, Thomas Wells? Jan. 10, 1669–70; second, John Annable of Ipswich.

The records of the town of Ipswich give the marriage of a Mary Perkins with Thos. Wells as above stated, but if she was the Mary (and we know of no other living there at the time), she was but eleven or twelve years old, which is possible, but seems to us improbable. We are certain that she did marry John Annable, whose wife she was in 1699, at which time he (J. A.) gives a deed of land to his "brother-in-law, Matthew Perkins, weaver."

Time of her death is unknown.

The children of John and Mary (Perkins) Annable were:

John, b. Jan. 5, 1678.
Matthew, b. Feb. 25, 1682; m. Mary Annable, 1711.
Mary, b. Dec. 7, 1684; m. Thomas Baker, Nov. 27, 1703.
Joseph, b. Jan. 11, 1690.

By his fa's. will he rec'd. the homestead and lands aft. his mo. d.; his lands at eastern part of the town near the river; chosen sgt. of the mil. co. of the town 1664 & was ever aft. kn. as sergeant, or as he wrote it "Sargent Jacob Perkins, se." (which distinguishes him from 2 others of the same name). He was a farmer; name often on rec. in purchase & sale of farm lands; his ho. struck by lightning on a Sun. in 1671, "while many people were gathered there to repeat the sermon, - - he and many others were struck down - - - he had his waistcoat pierced with many small holes, like goose-shot, and was beaten down as if he had been dead for the present." At time of his 2d m. he made a promise to support her during her life; ltr. in life he gave all his prop. to his 2 sons, Jacob and Matthew, on condition that they support both himself and his wife during their natural lives, per the following extract of deed:

20 March, 1693.

I, Sargt. Jacob Perkins, sen.
"Having grown old & decrepid and not able to manage my farm, I give the other portions of my land to my two sons Jacob and Mathew provided they support me & my now wife, with whom I made an agreement when we were married,"  - mentions in his will the portions he had given each of his sons on their marriage.

Land granted for burial

SANDWICH — In 1694, the Town of Sandwich "did give to those of their neighbors called Quakers, half an acre of ground for a burial place on the hill above the Canoe Swamp and between the Ways at Spring Hill.

Edward Perry, one of the first settlers of what is now the Town of Bourne (1640) coming from Roxbury, married Mary, daughter of Assistant Governor and first settler of Sandwich Edmund Freeman.

He was known as Edward, the Quaker, and died in 1695, but nothing marks the spot where he was "buried among his Friends," excepting that it was, "on the hill above the Canoe Swamp and Between the Ways."

For service in the militia "Lieftenant"Perry rec'd. 4s pay, 4 Apr. 1657. 29 May 1665, he agreed to assist in building the new Sandwich Meeting house. 25 June 1666 "The Court have graunted unto Ezra Perry a smale quantity of land in the Neck" (abt. 30 acres). 20 July 1667, "twenty acres additional graunted to Ezra Perry." 5 June 1671, Ezra and Edward Perry were appt'd. to rep. Sandwich on a com. "to view the damage done to the Indians by the horses and hogges of the English." He became freeman, 1677; appt'd. Constable 3 June 1679; several times Deputy to "Grand Enquest." His will dated 16 Oct. 1689, proved 18 Apr. 1690. Inventory dated 24 Oct. 1689 - total persons est. £ 78. 8s. & no real est.

(From "Sermons in stones abound on Upper Cape" - They've a taste for history on the rocks = by Bill Smoth - Sunday Cape Cod Standard-Times, June 6, 1971:

The last 2 paragraphs of the article read as follows:

> "And then there is the Ezra Perry Rock near the Perry homestead in Bourne Village, the function of which was at least unorthodox. When the Perrys returned from a trip they'd slip behind the big rock and fire a few shots into their house, just to be sure that there weren't Indians inside waiting for them. The odd bullet hole, reasoned the Perrys, could be patched easier than the results of a successful ambush."

Straightens the line

Bill Smith wrote an engaging review of Professor Farson's new book on the Cape Cod Canal.

The one point which we wish to correct concerns August Perry Belmont's Cape Cod ancestry. Belmont is quoted as moving the first shovel of earth for the canal from the farm of his ancestor Ezra Perry.

However Belmont was not descended from Ezra of Bourne but from his brother Edward Perry of East Sandwich, an early Liberal who became an articulate Quaker.

This line of Perrys removed to Rhode Island, where Edward's great-grandson, Christopher R. Perry, became the father of a distinguished family including Oliver Hazard Perry, the hero of Lake Erie in the War of 1812, and his brother, Matthew Calbraith Perry the Commodore who opened Japan to the West in 1853.

Matthew's daughter, Caroline Slidell Perry, married Belmont Senior in 1849.

The R-E bbok says Edward (instead of Edmond) d. in Eng. and that Sarah supp. Ø w/5 ch. Gives Ezra as 1st ch. (appar.) as b. in Devonshire, 1625, and gives bro. Edward as b. abt. 1632. (Per. the 3 daus. came in between????) Says Edw. m. abt. 1660, Mary Freeman - that he was a Quaker & fined, Dec. 1658, the "huge sume" of 89 pounds, 18 shillings - in consequence, to escape the fines, aft. 1675, he rem. to R.I. (My hastily written notes re a 2d m. but the date is marked over so I'm not doing anything about that until further check.)

Ezra's wid. Elizabeth adm. to First Ch. of Sandwich, 25 Nov. 1694.-- and gives total of his inv. as 125 pounds, 80 shillings, 3 pence. (I take issue with that as 20 shillings were put over into pounds in all the records I've seen as best I can remember - also NEHGR and Mayflower Descs. had the lesser total which we had before. This book had differences in his will (spelling & general lack of punctuation which seems more in keeping with those times) so I took that version. (I wish people wouldn't try to modernize the old wills, etc., when they copy them.) Guess the only way to get the right one would be to go to Probate Office and do our own copying. Book also says that Ezra Ø 1637 or 1639. So if he Ø w/his mo. then she had to come those dates. (No?) Says his dau. Deb. an anc. of Gen. MacArthur & F.D.R., that s. John m. Elzb Crowell and dau. Sarah d. 20 Oct. 1734. (Those last 2 items don't agree with what we have - so who's right?)

He was a Revolutionary soldier; rem. to Maine in 1784 and settled on the Brunswick side of New Meadow river, where the Census of 1790 gives him as the head of a family of twenty-five (sic) males of 16 years and upwards, four males under 16 years, and five females. In Brunswick he was a storekeeper, a miller, and a leading citizen; built a dam & tide mills on the New Meadows & dug, with others, a canal connecting head of that river with Merrymeeting Bay. In 1798 he was at Bath, Maine, where he was interested in shipbuilding. He owned 200 acres, east to west, from the Kennebec to New Meadow river, contiguous to his home-stead, kn. as the Peterson farm. He was himself a shipmaster, and had an extensive business in building & sailing ships. About 1809 he went to Liverpool with two ships & cargoes, all his (he commanded the ship called "Fair Lady"), sold the ships & cargoes in Liverpool & ret. to Newport, R.I.; settled in Portsmouth, on the island, where he d. at advanced age.

Source #29 - "Besides the family of John Peterson of Duxbury, there were certainly two other Peterson families in New England, evidently of later immigrations, & probably not related to each other or to the Duxbury family. One of these families settled in R.I. about 1725 and the other was settled at Newbury, Mass., where the marriage of Dr. Daniel Peterson of Salem and Elisabeth Willet is recorded under date of 23 Jan. 1719/20 & the births of their children from 1720 - 1735 are found. Some members of this family removed to New Hampshire and mingled with some of the Duxbury family, making the identification of New Hampshire Petersons a difficult matter." (MEPB - John^3, grson of John^1 of Duxbury, lived at various times at Duxbury, Middleborough, Pembroke & Rochester, Mass. and also at Richmond & Scituate, R.I. In 1756, at Richmond, R.I., he sold his Pembroke lands, & in 1765, at Scituate, R.I., he conveyed land to his son Silvanus. At least 6 of his ch. lived or were m. in Rhode Island. - Source #29)

The Family & Vicissitudes of John Phillips, Senior of Duxbury + Marshfield 1602-1692
by Azel Ames, M.D. (1903)

It appears well-nigh certain that John Phillips, ~~Senior~~ who was of Duxbury + Marshfield in the colony of New Plymouth, bet. 1640 & 1690, came to Duxbury in 1639, [Plym. Col. Deeds] presumably from the Mass. Bay colony, having bought of Robert Mendall of Duxburrow a house + land for £16 in hand XVIteene pounds" to be paid installments, "at the house of Mr. Winthrop in Boston."

John Phillips b. abt. 1602.

Came to Duxbury 1639 presumably from Mass. Bay colony

No mention of his 1st m., or of the birth of ch. by his 1st wife, appears on Plym. Col. Records. Hence the inference that he was m. & had ch. before coming to the col. Th. inference is further warranted by fact that his son John (k. by lightning in 1658) (Plym. Col. Records.) must have been, by what is known of him, abt. 25 yrs. of age.

In 1643 he was "an inhabitant of Duxbury as his name appears that year on the list of those of that town, "able to bear arms."

He came early to Marshfield. (Memorials of Marshfield p. 83 by Marcia A. Thomas) the exact date not known but he was engaged in a lawsuit w/ a Marshfield citizen in 1653, was Surveyor of Highways in 1655 constable in 1657 + pronounced a freeman in 1659.

Ch. by a former wife whose name + date of death are unknown John², Samuel², Jeremiah² + a dau., Mary²:

31 July 1658 k by L. 1658 Marshfield

K by L 1666

John Phillips, Jr., was quite certainly his father's eldest son + by certain evidence would seem to have been a householder at (South) Marshfield, lot 84 in July 1658.

A lease of land, made by Miss Grace (Halloway) Reade, the elder dau. of Mrs. Grace Halloway-Phillips (wife of John, Senior) a short time after her m. to Mr. Josiah Reade, in the Fall of 1666 (soon after her mo's death) of a part of estate of Wm. Halloway ~~fa. of Grace~~ former 1st husband of Mrs. Grace Halloway-Phillips, her mo. land was evidently prop. of the widow Grace at her husband's death in 1652 to the time of her sudden death in 1666.

Samuel² Phillips (John's 2d son) appears to have m. + had a family. & to have survived not only his bros. John k. by Lightning in 1658 + Jeremiah (k. by li. in 1666 and his half-brother ~~[illegible]~~ Joseph k. in the Indian Fight at Rehoboth 1676?), but also his fa., who lived to the great age of 90, as well as his 4 wives. The dau. Mary was who was "feeble-minded." also survived him + his 4 wives.

of William Holloway of Duxbury + Marshfield who having died prior to 1 March 1652-3 leaving 2 daus. - Grace +

15 yrs. younger than her husband.
By this marriage Mr. Phillips had 2 sons, Joseph + Benjamin,

Mary & his 2nd wife's dau. by first husband (- Jones) Hannah & the 2 of them were called to account for certain violent behavior toward each other for which they were fined.

The male members of the fam. were John senior his eld. son Samuel by 1st wife & his 2 young sons Joseph & Benjamin by his 2nd.

He began to look for another companion to take charge of his home & he sought for one w/ experience. On 23 Feb. 1666-7 Mr. Phillips ~~and~~
m. 3d Mrs Faith Doty concluded an ante-nuptial agreement as appears by the records of the Col. Recs. Vol. IV p. 193.

Mrs. Faith Clarke Doty of Plymouth was the 2nd wife & widow of Edward Doty who d. at Plym. 23 Aug. 1655 and dau. of Tristram & Faith Clarke of Duxbury.

She was the mo. of 9 ch. by her 1st husband (Mr. Doty) & evidently a matron of both yrs & experience.

14 Mar. 1666-7 Mr. Phillips @ age 65 m. Mrs. Faith Doty as his 3rd wife she being 17 yrs. younger than he. Some of her younger ch. accompanied their mo. to her new home in Marshfield — 3 of them at least a son & 2 daus. being "under age" at time of her m. to her 2d husband. John had no ch. by Faith — she was 48 yrs. old at the time of this m. having been 15 years of age when she came to N.E. in the ship "Francis" of Ipswich, Eng. in 1634.
The date of her d. is not known but Marshfield records show that she was bur. there 21 Dec. 1675 at the age of 56 yrs.

Mass. in 1747, Reliance Hatch. The Falmoith Ch. record (which I once examined myself, says that Reloance (not mentioning Lemuel) removed to the church in Sharon, Conn. And as my Adaliah was born there (according to his pension) it seems likely he was a son of Lemuel. I note that Lemuel had a brother, Ebenezer, born in 1648 - so the name would be accounted for in my family. BUT! also in Sharon about 1750 was Jonathan Davis, b. 1700, from Rutland, Mass. He had many kids but to have had Adaliah in 1752 he would have been 52 years old and also his wife just as old. And no Ebenezer name appears in any of his line which I have pretty well in full. So it seems that the Falmouth record seems most likely. One hitch, however, and it would take a searcher to again stury the Falmouth ch. records and probably the early records of the County at Barnstable. The church record saus RELIANCE, wife of Lemuel Davis removed to Sharon - but it does not include her husband. Then to add to the confurson, in 1754 the church record mentions Rachel, former wife of Lemuel Davis, as wife of Samuel LAWRENCE - who was, I find, of Sandwich. One item which also helps the Falmouth angle - the Hatch family also left the Cape and settled in Sharon and the name Ebenezer Hatch was Reliance's grandfather. I shall put this briefly on an enclosed paper which can be attached to my chart.

About the PHILLIPS on the chart. Just this winter we found that one Joseph Phillips was bapt. 19 April 1739 in WILTON, CONN. We have always known he was bborn "in Conn." but I could never find one at the right date. He was born 24, DEC. 1738 - so was bapt. in April 1739 - which seems logical. Anyway, my Vickerys from the Cape settled first in Ridgebury, Conn., in the town of Ridgefield which border on t he Town of Wilton - so you see Joseph and Dorcas were not far apart. Joseph went over the State line, into Putnam Co. where he joined the Militia in 1759 aged 19 - with his brother-inplaw David Vickery. Joseph and Dorcas married about 1763 - came up here and lived and died here and that is the end of my XXXXX.story.

For your own inf. Joseph, of Wilton, was a son of a Jacob Phillips, wwho was named for his uncle by marriage, Jacob Mayle, a wealthy West Indian merchant trader - and was prob. a son of a Jacob or Josepg-sons of Joseph Phillips, b. c1630 and wife, Patience Higby, probably from England. A friend of mine is helping me with that - doing a search in our State Library and some Phillips records in Boston. So I nay be able to complete my Phillips line after all these years. I have a whole standard file cabinet drawer with only Phillips files - including those of the Cape O an early Benjamin - and an elusive James, of Eastham, whose son, Rev. James, also came to Putnam Co. NY. Plus two cartons of Phillips files in an upstairs room which are the result of searching over the years. I COPIED EVERYTHING! I can usualy help those wgo write me for Phillips records.

Mon. 30th Jan. Sorry, I got interrupyed by a curious situation - I am selling a wood-lot and also an old friend came to see me about did I want to SELL my house! So genealogy left my mind as both these matters are of great concern. But I shall get the chart off to you - if I cannot do it, I will appreciate it if you can have it xeroxed or copy iy uourself if you feel like it - and then retirn the chart to me. From your letter I am sure you are feeling better ad better and I hope so.

Dear Mrs. Eddy:

Shortly after I mailed my letter to you it occurred to me that REPLIES to queries were to be published.

In that event, my reply about the Thomas and Hannag Crosby stones, in Putnam Co., being yours can certainly be published. But the rest of the letter is to you personally and there would be no object in it being published. But if any one would be interested in the Crosby-Snow possibilities in the Putnam County area, I would be glad to pass on whatever I could find.

I do not know the possibilities of the replies being published, but I thought I should add this to my letter.

Sincerely,

Ralph D

Mrs. Eddy: Just a few lines to enclose with the William Fisher Will.

First, the Will starts at the BOTTOM of the first page - so do not try to start at the top. I have not tried to read it - altho my handwriting is almost as bad - so I do not remember the contents. I am Quite certain it mentions two daughters, but not named. In any event, if you do not learn anything by it nothing is lost. But we still have the theoretical connecyion between the Fishers and Hopkins-s and perhaps some day someone can do a bit of a search in England.

I believe the place mentioned in the Will is Ibsey or Isbey - County of Southampton - but which is now in Hampshire, I think. I could check but it takes me sp lomg on account of small print that I can let you know later. I want to get this off before the Cmas mail starts - and, incidentally, perhapd you could return it right after the New Year.

It was nice to have spokem to you over the phone.

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Such a surprise (and delight) when you called up the other day! And then, Friday night, when I got home from work, I found your "tube" waiting for me in the mail. (Incidentally, I live in an area where it is permissable to have a mail slot in the door, so my mail awaits me INSIDE my home!) Somehow, I hadn't expected it all to be so lengthy! Right at present, I'm not able to study it adequately, as I have developed some kind of allergy which results in my eyelids being swollen. I therefore am not going to ponder that Olde English writing at this time!! Hopefully, within a week or two, this condition will clear ... and I will return this will to you early in Jan. In the meantime, I will take good care of it, and thank you again for sharing it with me. Will write more fully when I return the will. -- Hope all is well with you, and that you have a HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON.

Sincerely,

CCGS #15.

Mrs. Donald P. Eddy,
19, Prince Henry Drive,
East Falmouth, Ma. 62536.

Dear Mrs. Eddy: I have just noted your CROSBY-SNOW query in the recent CCGS Bulletin.

As my Phillips family came from Putnam Co. which was the South Precinct of Dutchess Co. until about 1815 I have been interested in early families there many of whom came from Cape Cod about 1740. My Vickery family - George-1; Benjamin-2;Ichabod-3 came to Putnam Co., then moved over the State line into N.Y. State and settled near Carmel or Brewster. Dorcas, daughter of Ichabod and Elizabeth (Bangs) Vickery, was born in Putnam Co. in 1743 and about 1763 married Joseph Phillips, born Conn. (prob. Danbury) and they came up here near Albany and settled on the VanRensselaer Patent. Among their neighbors in Putnam Co. were the Nickerson, Bangs, Crosby, Hopkins, Smith, etal Cape families. I have never found the parents of Joseph Phillips and I have searched for many years. I consequently have accumulated a lot of records on the Cape-Putnam families and it is because of that that I am writing.

I believe I have your Thomas Crosby with wife, Hannah. I have recently purchased the Buys book of Putnam Co. Gravestones and I find Thomas Crosby and Hannah in it.

Thomas Crosby died Feb. 16, 1944 aged 76y,
Hannah, h.w. died ~~April 20, 1855 aged~~ Feb. 24, 1853 aged 83y, 19d.

There is also another Thomas Crosby there - who died April 20, 1855 aged 45.

They are buried in the Milltown Cem. which is in the eastern part of the Town of Southeast, Putnam Co., and only a mile or two from the Conn. State line. The dates seem to fit with those given by you in the Bulletin. I shall be interested to know if that is so.

As a peculiar coincidence I have papers ready to write to Brewster, Mass. on the Vickery family. I had just recd. an xerox copf of a deed from Abner Phillips, son of above Joseph, and brother to David, my great grandfather - and the deed shows that his farm was in almost the identical location of Thomas and Hannah Crosby - if they lived near where they were buried.

I have a copy of Pelle5reay's "History of Putnam Co." which is a fine County history as it gives a lot of genealogical information, including g.s. inscriptions, etc. The early church was originally Congregational accont it being a settlement of "families from Cape Cod and Long Island..." but was later changed to Presbyterian. Tje old graveyard at the Gileas Church was organized as early as h750 or so - the land for the church or the graveyard was given by one Thomas Crosby. Right here - I must explain. I am in my 84th year with very bad eyesight. The Putnam Co. Hist. is not indexed and while it is very good reading the family information is spread thru the text - and mainly in the towns of Carmel, Patterson, Kent and Southeast. Most of the Crosby information is in Carmel and Soitheast townships. Also in the WGeneral Information," of the Co. there are brief references to the early families. I have abstracted most of the Cape-Putnam Co. names from a record of Supervisor's Tax Lists of Dutchess Co., startubg early 1700's. As stated above, Putnam Co. is the SOUTH PRECINCT of Dutchess Co. It is like Brewster and Harwich in your County. The deeds for Putnam Co. start about 1815 and are at Carmel, Putnam Co., and before that at the County Coirt House of Dutchess Co., at Poughkeepsie, N.Y. - which you may already know.

Years ago I made a chart of the Crosby family for the first 4 or 5 generations. It is in pencil and about 3 ft long. I note that I had found this Thomas and Hannah and had not connected him with the "main" line - but I think he might be from Isaac, b. 1718, d 1815, wife, Thankful. There was also an Isaac Jr. Isaac and Thankful had a som Solomon, 1750-1816buried at Milltown. Also on my chart near them, I have Sylvanus and Stephen. Perhaps some day in the future I can have a friend have a copy of this chart made.

Here in this area we had Hopkins, Crosby, Nickerson, Garrison Vickery, Robinson and Paddock families - most all from the Cape to Putnam Co., then up the Hudson River valley to this area. We are 12 miles s.e. of Albany.

OneTimothy Bussing married a Jane Crosby. She is descended from one Ely Crosby, born London. They settled here abt 1780.

John Garrison marrid Susan Crosby - she was a dau. of David and Reliance (Hopkins) Crosby - buried here in Nassau.

James Davis mar. 1768, Hannah Crosby, a widow, born New York City, and I have never found her. James was either my great great grandfather or his brother, Adaliah, was and rpbably from Falmouth, Ma. to Sharon, Conn., then here.

SNOW: Also in the Town of Southeast, John Snow is on an 1768 Tax List - taxed 7 days; another item, John Snow, swamp 5 days p Enoch Crosby is on same list also Abiel Crosby and WILLIAM SNOW. Also an Edwaed abd James Crosby - and JOSEPH PHILLIPS.

Later:I hope I have gelped you with the Crosbys and will be glad to hear from you. I ~~note~~ believe I did not give you my Snow line. It(s very simple. Nicholas Snow mar. Constance Hopkins; their dau. Mary mar. Thomas Payne; their dau. Dorcas married Benjamin Vickery; their son, Ichabod Vickery mar. Eliz. Bangs and had Dorcas who married my gt gt grandfather, Joseph Phillips as infirst page of this letter.

Which brings me to something else - the Stephen Hopkins line.

Although I have very few Cape Cod ancestors, my children have MANY ... including many that you named: Nickerson, Bangs, Snow, Hopkins, Paine ... Crowell, Covill, ... and many others. Yes, even the Paddock line married into the Eddy line "way back" ... so that's another one.

As for me, ALL of my ancestors are New England. At least, as far back as I've been able to trace them. My father's paternal ancestors dead-end one generation beyond my "mini-tree" on my letterhead. And Julia Baker (my mother's grandmother) is another connundrum! I have her mother's line, but am getting nowhere on her father's line. According to Julia's death record, her father was Henry Baker, born in York, Maine. His gravestone (in Albion, Maine) shows that he died March 15, 1867, aged 85.

By any chance, are you a member of the Connecticut Society of Genealogists?
It was because of my membership in that Society that I began to organize my things a little better. And then I began to fill out their charts. Suddenly, I realized I couldn't "find" an ancestor when I wanted him ... I had too many!! As a result, I have made a card file index OF WOMEN ONLY of my ancestors. If there is more than one line back to/through a couple, then a specific name will appear eachtime or way that my ancestry goes back to/through that person.
As a result, I find I have SIX Nickerson cards! -- For that matter, I have three HULL cards ... one through my mother, one through my father, and one through my father-in-law ... all going back to Rev. Joseph Hull. And, of course, Rev. Joseph Hull was here on Cape Cod for a while. His son Tristram (ancestor of both my father and my father-in-law) remained here on the Cape. Anyway, what I started to say was ...
I made this card file of surnames ... and I'm willing to guess that there are 500 or 600 names in it ... it measures nearly 7 inches (including the alphabet cards ... to help separate and find names, e tc.). Though, I must admit that some of these are people who never came to this country. After all ... once you get back to England, and especially if you get into Royalty ... the names go on almost forever!

I guess what I'm trying to say ... is ... that if youhave many New England ancestors, I'm willing to bet that we'll "meet" somewhere along the line.
So far, all names that I've mentioned in the ancestry of my children that are the same as ancestors you named ... these are in the ancestry of my in-laws.

You indicated you had done considerable research in England. That is especially interesting! (Have you ever worked on the name JENKINS? I have a friend who is very much interested in the English origin of his ancestor, John Jenkins.)

WELL...I've wandered far afield from Thomas Crosby and Hannah Snow!
Before I close ... I happened to find a Thomas Crosby and Hannah Snow in the Mayflower Index! They were descended from Stephen Hopkins ... but NOT through the Snow line. This particular Thomas Crosby was the son of Abner Crosby and Ruth Foster. Unfortunately, the Mayflower Index does not include dates/places ... and I have no idea as to whether these might be the ones in which Mr. Thomas is interested or not. Have you, perchance, encountered a Thomas Crosby who was the son of Abner Crosby & Ruth Foster? ... Perhaps the Five Generation Project (by the Mayflower Society) will help to solve this question. But it may be years before the HOPKINS book appears.

I enjoyed your letter so very much! -- And I know that Margaret Bready has also enjoyed hearing from you. In fact, we have spoken of you several times. (She and I share ma ny ancestors in Essex County, Mass.)

In closing, I should mention that I purchased "Hopkins of the Mayflower ..." by Margaret Hodges, and gave it to my daughter (after all, she's the one who descends from Stephen Hopkins, not I). [I do have Mayflower ancestry ... from John Alden and Francis Eaton.]

Thank you again for writing.　　　　Sincerely, A few years ago a Margaret Hodges wrote me she had seen my article in "The American Genealofist," on Stephen - that she was going to England for a while and wanted to do a search to try to find the family name of Constance, first wife of Stephen. She said she believed Constance was a Dudley - of the Earl of Leicester family. I disagreed and wrote her so. Her book "Hopkins of the Mayflower," came out and she mentioned her "theory" and also mentioned my name in the text - that I disagreed, etc. Anyway, a year or so later I found record of a will in England - I have an xerox copy of it - and it adds to my theory that Constance was probably also a Fisher - Stephen's second wife was Elizabeth Fisher - and I still believe I have a good clue. The Dudley name is not ruled out but not as the surname of Stephen's first wife. Some people are interested and others not - if you are interested I can give you the detalis of my theory. My interest is actually in the research and as I have done a lot of English research I find it easier than most people do. "Hopkins of the Mayflower," is still available - it is "historical-fiction" and very interesting - particularly about ordinary living in those days - and how Stephen came to become associated with the Mayflower people.

I hope I have not bored tou with all this and I hope you will forgive typed errors.

I shall be interested in hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ralph P

Dear Mr. Phillips,

I was so happy to hear from you, about that SNOW-CROSBY query in the CCGS Bulletin.
BUT -- I have a confession to make!
These people are NOT in my ancestry, but rather are ancestors of a correspondent who has shared considerable material with me, and I hoped to be able to do him a "favor." I have made a copy of your letter, and am sending that copy to ... Mr. H. A. Thomas, 3805 Crescent St., Long Island City, New York 11101. It is possible that he may write to you.

Your 2nd letter arrived today ... and I realize that the longer letter (copy being sent to Mr. Thomas) is indeed a "personal" letter, and not intended for presentation as a reply. Other than ... the gravestone records of Thomas Crosby and Hannah his wife. Incidentally, you typed that Thomas Crosby died in 1944 ... and I bet your fingers played the same trick on you that my fingers frequently play on me ... I bet that year should have been 1844.

Although those mentioned in that query are NOT in the ancestry of my children ... my father-in-law descends from Stephen Hopkins through his dau. who m. Nicholas SNOW.

And, more recent research shows that my mother-in-law also has HOPKINS ancestry!
When I first read Margaret Hodges book, "Hopkins of the Mayflower -- A Dissenter" I took many notes. I realized she was not a "true" genealogist, and that she was presenting the probable lineage rather than the positively proven lineage. But there were many (apparent) facts that appeal to me ... to the point that I tend to accept them until proven wrong.
I was very much interested in your theory that Stephen's 2nd wife was a FISHER (I had thought that she was a widow ... Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher ... maiden name not known); and that the first wife was related. Well, Margaret Hodges gave that impression ... that the two wives were probably related ... either sisters or cousins. You just know that I am interested in any PROOF as to the names of either or both of these wifes!!

In the meantime ... to add to my interest in the "Snow-Crosby" query ... my mother-in-law has in her ancestry a CROSBY whom we are unable to identify. She is Priscilla Crosby... and where she came from, we have no idea! She managed to be in Nova Scotia in the early 1760's ... at the time when many from New England were accepting the offer of the governor of Nova Scotia and heading north to homestead on the farms that had been "deserted" by the Acadians which the government had forced out of the country. Priscilla Crosby married in 1763 one Jonathan Baker ... from Essex County, Mass. The marriage seems to have taken place in [Yarmouth] Nova Scotia. Jonathan Baker descends from Robert^{1} Baker who d. 1640, Salem, Mass., through his son Cornelius^{2} (m. Hannah Woodbury), Beverly, Mass.; Jonathan^{3} (m. Mary ----); Jonathan^{4} (m. 1728/9, at Beverly, Elizabeth Trask of Salem); probably Jonathan^{5} ... and he's the one who m. 1763, Priscilla CROSBY (WHOOPS!! I see now that I have my notes in front of me, that this marriage was in 1764. Well,one year doesn't make that much difference, though it should be accurate if possible!).
Anyway, if your Crosby records should include this Priscilla ... I'd be forever grateful if you would share such info with me!!

Mrs. Donald Eddy,
Easr Falmouth, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Eddy:

I must apologize for not replying to your letter of 25, March ere this. I became involved in a new clue to my own Phillips ancestry in Putnam County, N.Y., and as I have looked for clues this is the first real one in a long time. But because it is of Putnam Co. and your Crosby-Snow pronlem is of Putnam Co., I had it all in my mind.

Agrees with Mag. Ind - see H A. Thomas Corr.

As I find it such slow going - trying to remember what I have written and trying to read my own records - I hope you will ask me again if there is anything more about the Hopkins-Snow g.s. My own Crosby chart shows Thomas, with wife Hannah Snow, as son of Abner. My chart was made from collected material years ago and while I did not put every record I have - I put what seemed authentic and for which I had reference. But my file is thick and mostly pencil-written papers I have difficulty going thru them. But I assure you I am one of those persons who does not want "guessed" ancestors. If there is any question I use dotted lines for connections - this Thomas x son of Abner came apparently from an authentic source and it is my guess that it may have been from some Crosby mayerial in the N.Y. G& B. Library in NYC.

Phillips: Thru a deed in Putnam Co. Court House, of Abner Phillips, b. 1769, son of Joseph and h.w. Dorcas Vickery-4; Ichabod and Dorcas 3 Paine - dau of Thomas 2 & Mary 1 (Snow) Paine (m 2 B)
Eliz. Bangs Vickery-3; Benjamin and ~~Mary~~ 2 Snow-2 Geo Vickery-1 - I have found where he lived and I found a map which shows the house as later owned by his half-brotherOin-law, Thos. Drew. It is in Carmel, Putnam Co. and just across the Town from your Thomas and Hannah g.s. So I have been very busy with that.

Hopkins: I am always interested in Hopkins and Snow as both are my ancestors. I have hoped to find someone who also is interested in the Constance ( ) problem. I was the one who suggested to Mrs. Hodges that Constance may have been a cousin or sister to Stephen's 2d wife, Elizabeth Fisher. I also DISagreed with her that Cobstance was a Dudley. BUT. After her book was published I found a will in England (I sent for and have a copy) of one Thomas Fisher WITH WIFE CONSTANCE. Dates and place in order. And in that same Fisher family is the name, Giles. It seems more than a coincidence to find a Constance and Giles Fisher, and Stephen Hopkins naming his first two kids, Constance and Giles - to be a coincidence. I think, too, that the Dudley tradition, and I expect it is only a tradition as any reference has never been given - that this Constance, wife of William Fisher, MAY HAVE BEEN THE DIDKET as dates conform more with those of Robert Dudley, Early Leicester. There is not much on the Dudley family - my inf. is partly from Encycl. Britt. and other occasional mentions.

So, you see, my children have three lines back to Stephen Hopkins ... and hence my interest in him.

How I wish I had learned some of my mother-in-law's ancestry while she was still living! You see, her father was born in England (district of Wotton under Edge, co. Gloucester, to be exact) and her mother was born in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia; somehow my mother-in-law almost felt like a "foreigner" when she married into this EDDY family which had arrived on these shores in 1630. Little did she realize that her husband's great grandparents were both born outside of the U.S.A. (see (*) Josiah Enoch Curran on preceding page). And she had no idea at all that her Wyman ancestry would come back to Cape Cod and the Mayflower! Her early Wyman ancestors were in Woburn, Mass. Several of them married RICHARDSONS ... and that is one of the lines I share in common with my mother-in-law, as I, too, have Richardson ancestry.

If we keep ~~xxxx~~ looking long enough ... we are ALL cousins!

Mostly, I have no problem at all in reading your letters. But in your letter of April 14th, there is one statment that puzzles me. Either you are springing a new word on me, or your fingers got on the wrong keys (and that happens to me frequently, as you can tell by my "strike-overs, etc.). Anyway, here is the statement:

> "I think, too, that the Dudley tradition, and I expect it is only a tradition as any reference has never been given - that this Constance, wife of William Fisher, MAY HAVE BEEN THE DIDKET as dates conform more with those of Robert Dudley, Early Leicester." DUDLEY

Now, my question concerns the word I have underscored above (CAPS are yours).
Who, what, or hwere is a DIDKET??
(That's a good word!) answer in his next letter.

RATS!! The telephone just rang ... and I'm being called in to work. Had expected to have this entire day to myself, and had many plans of "things to do." Guess they'll have to wait for another day.

So I will bring this to a close. -- You said you have a large garden which occupies much of your time in the summer, so I'll understand if there's a long pause before I hear from you again. In the meantime, I just bet that rainy days or the days when you catch up on corredpondence, do a bit of genealogy, etc. Hope that you have a pleasant summer and a most productive garden!

Sincerely,
M.B.E.

I do not know whether or not I mentioned it, but I had a long search done in Gloucestershire, Eng., records on Stephen Hopkins, and the result was published in THE AMERICAN GENEAOGIST," April 1963.

There seems to be little question but what Stephen Hopkins married secondly, Elizabeth Fisher, as such a marriage is given in the Register of the church St Mary Matfallon, London,, 19 Feb. 1617/18. That does not prove that he is OUR Stephen, but I believe it has been accepted as such for years. The booklets - Cape Cod Series, of Leon Hills, also gives the record..

Snow: My Snow ancestry is conspicuous by its brevity. Nicholas and Constance had a dau. Mary who mar. Thomas Payne; theor daughter, Dorvas, mar. Benjamin Vickeru-2 - their son, Ichabod, b. 1707, Harwich, mar. Eliz. Bangs, and their daughter Dorcas, b. Putnam Co. 1743, mar. my gt gt g.f. Joseph Phillips.

Ichabod Vickery had come from the Cape with some others in or about 1839 to Ridgebury, Conn., close to the NY State line - but was in Putnam Co. by 1741 where he shows in a Tax List. Joseph Phillips was born in Conn, possibly Danbury, 1739,but was in Putnam Co. by 1758.

Please forgive if I have given you all that previously - better twice than not at all.

C,S,G, Yes, I am a member of the Conn. Soc. of Ge. - number 230. I am also a member of the Cape Cod Genealogical Soc. - number 15.

I hope my typed mis-spellings in this letter are not too bad. I fodo not try to re-read as I have found I make errors worse by trying to correct.

If you have any particular questions to ask about Crosby, Snow or Constance, I will be glad to reply as best I can. I am in ,y 84th year and I have trouble finding particular records.

I hope you are having some Spring weather - we have just begun altho it snowd yesterday. But I have a large garden which occupies much of my time all summer - genealogical researhc all winter.

Sincerely,

Ralph P

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Your good letter of April 14th arrived while my daughter and family were visiting from Rockland, Maine ... and it is only now resurfacing! Please forgive my long delay in replying.

Yesterday I was in Plymouth, and I went to the Mayflower Society Library to inquire about Thomas Crosby and his wife Hannah Snow. Yes, it IS the couple which you told me about that's buried in Milltown Cemetery, in the eastern part of the Town of Southeast, Putnam Co., N.Y. The ONLY date that the Mayflower Society had concerning Hannah Snow, was the date of her marriage to Thomas Crosby, being Feb. 12, 1786. I plan to combine the info you sent from the gravestones with the info the Mayflower Society gave me, and prepare a "reply" to appear in the next issue of the C.C.G.S. Bulletin.

You mentioned the April 1963 issue of The American Genealogist which contains your article about Stephen Hopkins, from records you had searched in Gloucestershire, Eng. Although I have not seen this article, I have received reference to it from others. And, if they are correct in their reporting to me, you found that Stephen Hopkins was probably son of Stephen and grandson of Robert Hopkins. This is the ancestry I have shown for him in my records. Both my mother-in-law and my father-in-law descend from Stephen Hopkins ... I thought you might be interested in their lines:

Stephen Hopkins & 1st wife (probably Constance ... possibly Dudley ... prob. related to 2nd wife, Elizabeth Fisher)
Constance Hopkins and Nicholas Snow
Mary Snow and Thomas Paine
Thomas Paine & 1st wife Hannah Shaw, dau. of Jonthan Shaw & 1st wife Phebe Watson
Jonathan Paine & 2nd wife Mary (Scammon)Parrington, dau. of Humphrey Scammon
Hannah Paine & Isaac Crowell 2nd
Isaac Crowell 3rd & Susannah Blish, dau. of Reuben Blish, Jr. & Ruth Childs
Lydia Crowell & William Farris, son of Samuel Farris & 2nd wife Meribah Killey
Sarah Gifford(Farris)Crowell, 2nd wife of John Eddy
Osborne Eddy & Mary Maria Curran, dau. of Josiah Enoch Curran (*) & Elvah Mary Loveland
Arthur Chester Eddy & 1st wife Helen Wyman Pearce
Donald Pearce Eddy & yours truly

(*) Josiah Enoch Curran was born July 14, 1846, in Franklin Co., N.Y. (according to the Loveland Genealogy). I am having great problems in trying to learn anything further about him. The 1880 Census shows that Josiah E. Curran was born N.Y.; that his father was born in Ireland, and that his mother was born in Canada. And that is the extent of my findings. Any suggestions as to how to accomplish further research on this problem would be most welcome!

Now for the other Hopkins line:

Stephen Hopkins & 1st wife
Gyles Hopkins & Katherine Wheldon
Mary Hopkins & Samuel Smith
John Smith & Bethia Snow, dau. of Stephen Snow & 1st wife Susannah (Deane) Rogers
(Stephen, son of Nicholas Snow & Constance Hopkins)
Mercy Smith & Nathan Kenney
Nathan Kenney & Sarah Nickerson
Elizabeth Kinney, 1st wife of Capt. Joshua Pitman Trefry
Sarah Trefry & John C. Wyman
James Wellesley Wyman & 2nd wife Caroline Baker
Lydia Annie Wyman & Joseph Pearce, parents of Helen Wyman Pearce (above)

Mrs. Domald P. Eddy,
19, Prince Henry Drive,
East Falmouth,
Mass. 02236.

Dear Mrs. Eddy:

Thank you for your letter of 22 June with reference to Thomas Crosby and h.w. Hannah Snow. I am glad I was able to find the gravestones in Mrs. Boys Putnam Co. Inscriptions.

Thanks, too, for the pedigree of your "in-laws" - and while I think I gave you mine - it is very short. I am descended from Stephen Hopkins thru daughter, Constance who married Nicholas Snow - Mary Snow mar. Thomas Payne; Dorcas Payne mar. Ichabod Vickery - all of Cape Cod - then Ichabod and Elizabeth came to Putnam Co., N.Y., where their daughter, Dorcas b. 1743 mar. Joseph Phillips - whole parents I have never found unless he is one Joseph, of Wilton, Comm. as all we know is that our Joseph was born in Conn. Joseph and Dorcas Phillips had David (mar. Martha Morehouse) and had Andrew who mar. Julia Ann Davis, and they had my father, David, b. 1847 who mar. Jane Albertina Hermance, of Holland Dutch ancestry. But he mother was an Ambler, of Stamford, Conn. and HER mother, a Waterbury, of Stamford - so all my Phillips ancestry is New England English and mother's partly so.

Now as to the Dudley reference. I am getting so that I cannot see what I am typing and when in a hurry I do not re-read my letters - so with friendly genealogical correspondents, I just hope of the best. The word in question is DUDLEY. What I was trying to say was that where there is a family tradition there is usually a bit of fact behind it. In this case I believe the tradition that Stephen's 1st wife was a Dudley is incorrect, but when I found the Will of William Fisher with wife, Constance, it came to me that William's wife could have been a Dudley and that they were the parents of both wives of Stephen Hopkins - Constance and Elizabeth Fisher. I also found the name Giles in that same Fisher family - and it seems more than a coincidence that the names Constance and Giles are in the Fisher family - and that Stephen named his first two children, Constance and Giles. Research in England might help - I have a copy of the above William Fisher's will - mentions daughters but no names. What do you think about that theory? I make up possible and/or probable stories about my ancestors and then try to prove them. I feel that they are more than just names and dates. That is why I liked Mrs. Hodges "Hopkins of the Mayflower," - whether real or imaginary or - I liked it.

The strange word in my letter made me think of another strange name in one of my ancestral families was VUDGLES Olcott. She was in the Will of one Edward Elmer, of Quinton, Northamptonshire, Eng. As I was once a member of the Northamptonshire Record Scoiety and knew what records they had, I wrote them to ask if they would check the original will. They checked it and found the VUDGLES was DOUGLAS. In the 15th century family names were often given to girls and that is what happened in my Elmer family. I have been to the church at Quinton - it is a line building surrounded by woods now. I do not know whether or not it used but I think it is. It's just a few miles south of Northampton.

Some day I am going to write you about my Davis family who MAY have come from Falmouth. I have seen the Falmouth Ch. records and I bought the recent book of vital records. Briefly, one Lemuel Davis mar. in Falmouth, 1747, Reliance Hatch - Reliance came to SHARON, CONN. in 1751, and Adaliah Davis was born there, in Sharon, in 1752. Adaliah had either a son, Ebenezer, b. 1771, or he was a brother. Adaliah mar. Eliz. Griffin and had Adaliah and Elizabeth - which show the relationship to Adaliah and Ebenezer - and the Davises and Hatches were in Sharon, Conn.

To make it more confusing, in a story book of Falmouth there is a Capt. BILL Davis mentioned. And my above Adaliah and Elizabeth had a son, BILL, born here in 1780. The Falmouth Bill was must leter - probably only a cpincidence in the 2 BILL-s - but we know ours was BILL and not William as I have the Bible record from a descendant. Anyway, ti was take pages for me to type up the whole story.

With recent rain the greass has suddenly come to life and also the weeds in my garden. But we have had some beautiful weather recently. We were bothered with woodchucks, etc., in our gardens - but a neighbor of mine and I each bought a large "catch-them-alive" traps - and we have not had an aninal sine that first year. I have tomatoes, cucuembers, zucchini, sweet-corn, radishes and peas - but something happened to peas in this area this year - they never developed. It's the first time I have not had lots of them.

I hope you are having a good summer. If I were not i n my dotage and had a car, I would be at the Cape "early and often" as I have always liked it there.

All the Best for now.

Sincerely,

Ralph S

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Don't ask me what happened to the summer. It literally evaporated ... and only now am I answering your good letter of last July.

I was especially interested in your note about Mr. E.S. Lindley who published a History of Wotton-under-Edge, in 1962; the next time I go to the NEHGS in Boston, I shall inquire as to its possible availability here. My mother-in-law's maiden name was PEARCE (which I understand is almost as "common" as Smith in that area).

As for Stephen Hopkins ... and whether his wife was a Dudley or not ... I find your "guesswork" very interesting. That the Fisher family should have both Constance and Giles certainly seems to lend authority to the situation. However, if I remember correctly,, Margaret Hodges, in her book "Hopkins of the Mayflower" indicates there were Hopkins relatives named GILES. But it would be interesting to learn more of the family of William Fisher and his wife Constance. Did you say you have a copy of his will? Is it clear enough to be photo-copied? If possible, I would be happy to see (own) a copy of that will.

And, I agree with you ... I enjoyed Mrs. Hodges' book vefy much. Triply so ... as my children seem to have three lines back to Stephen Hopkins. The only one I am sure of is through my father-in-law, and I think I have already told you that line. Also, I think my mother-in-law has at least two lines to him; plus one line to Elder William Brewster.

And, while on the subject of Mayflower ancestors ... I'll add that I descend from John Alden and Priscilla Mullins as well as from Francis Eaton. So my children have quite a "Mayflower Heritage."

I hope you have been receiving the Bulletin of the Cape Cod Genealogical Society regularly. The next issue will be in December, but due to the great amount of mail at that time of year, I may possibly wait until after Christmas before mailing that issue. Uncle Sam has been good to us ... we are now Income Tax Deductible.

Dear Miriam Eddy:

Thank you for your letter of the 9th inst. When it came I wondered what had happened as I had just written a long letter with genealogical enclosures to the Cape Cod Gen. Soc. In the last Bulletin, the Editor had asked for a list of Cape Cod family names which have appeared in one's locality. And as we have several here, I had sent them along. They also asked for the member's pedigree for four generations. That will have to wait. I have one copy but I will have to wait until I can get a Xerox copy as it would be a mess if I tried to copy it on account of my eyesight. But I also felt that the Society would be more interested in ~~what~~ who my Cape ancestors were, so I included that - which is four generations from my gt gt grandmother, Dorcas Vickery-4; Ichabod and Eliz. (Bangs)-3; Benjamin and Dorcas (Payne)-2; George Vickery-1. And I said I would send my "nearer" four generations later. I do not think the latter will be of much interest as while my father was 100 percent New England; my mother was Holland-Dutch descent - the Beekmans, Schermerhorns, RenEycks, Swarts, etc., all of the Hudson River valley - - her name was Hermance and descended from Jan Focken-Hermance who came from Ruinan, Holland, in March 1660. And I do not recall seeing many of the CCGS members with N.Y. Dutch ancestry. Anyway, I shall send it along.

WOTTON-under-Edge:I was surprised to learn that your mother's maiden name was Pearce. I an descended from John Pearce, of R.I. c. c1632. I never found his parentage - Neither has any of the old-time prof. genealogists - except to say the Pearces were descendants of the Percy family. My object in British research is not to see how far back I can go - but just to find one or two generations.

I am sorry to say the name Pearce (or Pier~~x~~ce(does not appear in the index of the Wotton book. The exact title is "Wotton under Edhe: Man and Affairs of a Cotswold Wool Town."
By E.S. Lindley, M.I.C.E., F.S.A. I have a lot of letters from him on the Hopkins search and I still do not know what E.S. stands for. I paid him his requested fee but he used to send notes of different findings now and then - all in long-hand. Oh yes, his book was published by the Museim Press Ltd. London, about 1962, which is when he sent me a copy. ACTUALLY, IT IS MOSTLY (sorry - did not mean to type upper-case - blame eyesight) the books is mainly "affairs" and not so much genealogical - even of our Stephen Hopkins problem. He mentioned my interest and help. and mentioned a bit about the Dudley family. I think there is more in his letters, i.e., his thoughts about the Robert Dudley connection.

I hesitate to write about that as I have my own theory and a good ~~bun~~number of Dudl ey notes but it will take someone in England to search Court records, Chancery Court, especially, eyc., to come to anything more than a theory.

I have not re-read Mrs. Hedges book, but as I recall from first reading when I received it, I felt she did not tell me anything.

My finding of the William Fisher will occurred AFTER Mrs. H's book was published. Whether it would have made any difference in the result of her trip to England or not - who knows. I wrote her that I had found the Will; she replied that she was not interested any longer in Stephen as she was writing anoyher book.

We do not know WHERE Stephen married Constance. We do not know where she lived or where she died. But with the given names, Constance and Giles in both the Hopkins family and the Fisher family - and Stephen's 2d wife being a Fisher - seems to mean something. It may all be wishful thinking on my part, but I would like someone to dis-rpove it. Mrs. H. mentions one Jasper and "Jasper's Folly" - there were lots of Hopkinses in London at the time - even a Robert who is said to have been Stephen's brother. He was an Apprentice and I have an xerox copu of the record in the original book entry - as far as I can make out the date of Robert's apprenticeship does not afree with Stephen's dates at all. (I am writing without notes so if you want me to check later, can do.) William and Constance Fisher lived in Hampshire, not far from london, but almost on the Great Western Highway - London to Bath - andStephen could have got in that area or the Fishers could have been of London.

I rpobably wrote in my last letter that I think Cobstance, wife of William Fisher MAY have been the DUDLEY. Stephen Hopkins wife, Constance, was certainly NOT d aughter of Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester. He was born in 1731; beheaded when he was 55 - Constance was undoubterdly a bit younger than Stephen and born nearly 150. Robert Dudley has 2 wives and probably a third. He married Amy when he was prob. 19 - then Lettice Devereaux; then prob. Douglas Knowllys. (spelling). If there was a daughter, Constance, it would have appeared - even in the Ency. Brittanica, etc. But, as above, there still may be a Dudley connection and it could easily be Wm Fisher's wife, Contance, who could have been a close relation to Robert, Earl of Leicester.

As I wrote, I have an xerox copy of the Fisher Will. But I cannot seem to find it - I have had several from England - they come in a card-board roll. I have a couple of Wills of which I think William's is one, but I cannot read them - and NOT because of my eyesight. They are very difficult. Ordinarily, I do not trust an original to the mail, but this not exactly an original as one can get another copy from the Public Record Office, Londom, very easily. Just take a couple of dollars and time. I have a couple of friends here who are able to read some of the old English wills - I will have to wait until I can get hold of one of them. If I recall it mentions daughters but no names 0 and no sons that I recall.

Speaking of Ency. Britt. I have a set and while it is good, it does not always gibe what one looks for - for instance, it mentions Adam, the first man, and his 2 sons, Cain and Abel, but does not say who Cain and Abel married. - Leave it to a genealogist to ask such a question - I hope it does not offend you.)

As to the Wotton book, it is rather a choice book of mine and I do nto trust the mails to send such books and records. If you would like to have me order a copy, I would be glad to do so as I have had an account with an old established book store in Bristol, England, for about 30 years. And Bristol is in the Wotton area - or vice-versa. It should still be in print and was 35s according to the price on the inside cover. Don't ask me what that is now - I cannot manage the new British money system - except I still do know the £ - which is about $2.03. I got used to the pounds, shillings and pence - sorry to see them go. I still have money from my last trip- souvenirs now.

Later - I am afaid this is becoming an autobiography ... I did skip a couple of non-Cape ancestors - my grandmother, Ambler, and HER mother, Waterbury - both of Stamford, Conn. Like the Cape - when one gets a Stamford ancestor he gets a dozen.

In the 1950's I was a member of thr Bristol ' Gloucestershire Arch. Soc. and received their booklets - which cover the Hopkins area - and also occasional mention of Dudleys - very early. I will check the index of each year for Pearce and enclose it if found.

Glad to hear from you at any time.

Sincerely,

Ralph P

Dear Mrs. Eddy:

I received your letter AND THE BULLETIN in the same mail yesterday.

It is difficult for me to express myself about the contents of your letter, I have heard of people who have gone through many operations in their lives but this is the first time it has been someone whom I feel as though I know. I am very glad you are back "on even keel". I appreciate what you said about your typewriter as I feel exactly the same way. When I go away for more than a day or so I always put my typewriter out of sight - so if anyone did break in they MIGHT miss seeing and taking it. It is a Royal Portable and I bought it in N.Y.C. in 1940. I do have trouble now and then with the ribbon spool reverse. And as there is no typewriter service nearer than Albany, and I do not have a car, I make do the best I can. Our Bank, right on my street, has a man come there to clean their machines and I could use him but it means taking the machine for days and you know what that means when I ordinarily use it every day.

I just discovered that my membership is over due so I sent a check to Mr. Harrison today.

Now. I am in trouble. I know I would make a mess of trying to fill in the PHILLIPS CHART, enclosed in the BULLETIN as much of my eye trouble is FOCUS. I cannot seem to type anything on a line no matter how hard I try. You should see where I sign checks or type the date away out if place - but I guess the bank is used to iy now as they never quetion a check - even tho it is the Chas Manhattan Bank in NYC which I have used since 1956. So, I am going to enclose an old chart which I did several years ago with a request that some kind soul would type your chart from mine - or xerox mine for your use if you would rather have it.

There is one part which must be corrected - the most important persons? - my Phillips and Davis ancestors. Here's why.

With 4 generations (your chart) it would not include my gt gt grandfather, Joseph Phillips noe his wife, Dorcas Vickery! After nearly fifty years I have at last found Joseph's date of birth and place. And it is Dorcas's ancestry which give me about a dozen CAPE ancestors - and how could I leave her out... I will enclose a paper giving both the Phillips and Davis informatiom.

My gt grandfather, Ebenezer Davis, was b. in 1771 - am not sure where - probable son of Adaliah Davis, b. 1752 in Sharon, Conn., but as there is only 19/10 years difference in their age, we are not sure whether they were father and son or brothers. Ebenezer did name a son, Adaliah, also, it seems likely je would name a son are a prent rathan after abrother.

To make it worse - and you may remember my article to Mr. Smith which appeared on the inside of the back page of a BULLETIN a few years ago which moreor less tells the story. I believe that Adaliah Davis was most likely a son of a Lemuel Davis who married, in Falmouth, March 13, 1979

Dear Mr. Phillips,

At long last, a reply to your letter of Jan. 27th.

Recuperation ... recovery ... rebuilding of muscles ... all this is taking much longer than I had anticipated. No, I did not have an operation (other than several small biopsies, one of which was in the muscle of the calf of my right leg), but this ailment of DERMATOMYOSITIS is very strange indeed. Furthermore, during the month of February, I had several (minor) set-backs which slowed down recovery, etc.

Tomorrow I go back to Mt. Auburn Hospital in Cambridge to see the doctor who treated me there. I am really looking forward to it ... wanting to know his evaluation of my progress ... plus also, I have lots of questions I want to ask.

In the meantime, I am allowed to drive locally (though someone else will drive me to Cambridge), and I have worked ½-day per week each of the last 2 weeks.

Now, as for your 4-generation chart and the info you would like me to put on it, etc. ... I simply have not gotten to it yet. However, I plan to make a copy of the chart which you sent me ... and I will return that chart along with the March 1979 Bulletin (now at the printer's ... I hope to pick it up this afternoon) and the Index to 1978 Bulletins ... which will be mailed (hopefully) later this week or early next week. I will keep the info in your letter ... to add to and/or verify info on the chart you sent me. When I DO prepare your CCGS 4-generation chart, I will undoubtedly start with your father; in this way, the 4th generation will include your Vickery and Davis "problems". People are starting anywhere along the line that they want to. When the (standard) individual numbering system is used (whereby the father of any person is 2 times that person's number and the mother of any person is 2 times that person's number plus 1), it is easy to figure out just "how far back" any person may be. (An example, is my 4-generation chart, p. 102, in the Dec. 1978 Bulletin. Also, I have a chart of my father-in-law's in the March 1979 Bulletin.)

The next CCGS meeting is March 15th, but I'm not sure whether I can really attend it or not; It is at the Cape Cod Community College which involves more walking & more stairs than I can

Dear Mrs. Bready:

Thank you ever so much for sending me M~~t~~N. Smith's Obi~~y~~tuary. I had known that he was ill but did not know of his death. We had a nice correspondence when I first joined the CCGS and as his letters were so "live" I thought he was a young man. I am certain the Society will miss him.

ELMER: I wish you luck on finding something more concerning a possible relationship between the Jhn Aylmer (1521-1594) - almost always spelled Aylmer - and our Edward Elmer family. I believe I made myself clear in last letter that I doubt very much that there was any connection unless it was in the 13th or 14th centuries. I believe I also said that I had found that the Aylmers- in Co. Suffolk, I believe, near;y alwaus spelled the name Alymer while the family in Northhampton shire seems always to have been Elmer. I am going to tru to make a little chart of the Northants Elmers as I have the possible line in England. (I have great trouble writing as I once broke bones in my right wrist and I still have trouble - that together with my poo eyesight does not make for good charts.)

I have a typed copy of the Will of the Edward Elmer, of "Bynton, dated 1612 - copied from the original Will in London. He leaves a bequest to son, Edward, but "art the discretion of my Executors," so je could have been the grabdfather of our Edward and the son, Edward, the father or without the death date of the second Edward - the two Edward might be the same. Our Edward wiuld have been about 10 years old in 1612 - which would be o.k. if other records matched. I never like to guess at such relationships - I leave such to the reader.

My research from England was done by a (genealogically) responsible lady, but her letters are handwritten on thin paper. I am going to ask ny frield, Paul Huey, who has access to a very good Xerox machine, if these can be Xeroxed and if so I would be happy to send you a copy. As I cannot now do library research I do not have anything new to add since my last letter but if you have any questions about my records or my hteories please do not hesitate to ask me about them.

NASSAU: Y ou ask where is Nassau. I am glad it is not on many maps - we are a very quiet village 12 miles southeast of Albany on the east side of the Hudson River. No camp sites, nor condiminiums or huge market plazas and no racial troubles. All this area was once a part of the VanRensselaer Patroon Manor - and I have before me (framed) one of the VanRensselaer leases dated 1792 0 a farm from which my grnadfather's farm was taken from. St has Stephen VanRensselaer's signature. Incidentally, Nassau (town) was once Philipstown named for Philip Van Rensselaer - not my family. My gt gt gra dfather was born in Conn (?Danbury) or thereabouts - maybe from Cape Cop family with the Vickerys? - then into Dutchess Co.(now Putnam) then up here.

(Lydia Annie Wyman & Joseph Pearce, parents of Helen Wyman Pearce [illegible])

This Nassau area was settled about the time of the Revolution and was a part of the VanRensselaer Patroon Manor

My house has been said to be the oldest house in the village - it was built about 1787 by a Dutchess Co. Quaker named Moses Vail. It has been changed a lot inside, but the wide floorboards still remain and there is one curiousity about it - it has a 5-ft cellar along the back and one side of the house - and two separate "cellar doors" on the ouriside. I think it may have been an herb cellar. I found an old candlestick in the cellar - the lip is marked "Shaw BGHN" - I suspected it was Birmingham, England, so I wrote there and they gave me Shaw names from their Directory of the 1770's and one is significent as being the maker of candlesticks in 1 the 1770's. I know it would be a Birmingham in America at that time. I am on a main street in the Village - have plenty of lawn to keep me busy and a nice garden. U have potatoes from the garden to last all winter and later. So it is all worthwhile.

I was born here in Nassau - our old home is now the Town hall. My parents died in 1919 and 1921; I went to N.Y.C. and remained until I retired in 1960.

Please forgive the autobiography - added to the information about the Village of Nassau.

With Best Wishes for the New Year, I am

Sincerely

Ralph Phelps

Dear Mrs. Bready: Please excuse. Every once in a while the roller in my old Royal turns, but the paper does not, and the aboveis the result. And we arehaving a blizzard; it is very dark and that is another excuse.

As to my Post Office Box. Originally it was Box 372, but somehow the CCGS started with 374 - it may have been a typographical error in my letter requesting membership. Anyway, I let it pass by - used 372. Then last Spring my box was changed to a box with key - and that is my present box 664. 372 was a combination box and with my eyesight I could not see the combination numbers. But all of it made no difference as the Postmaster told me not to both about changing in, i.e. notifying anyone as "We all know you." I have a twin brother - he had the same trouble and also now has a lock box. Even this a.m. two people took me for my brother. I go for mail every morning and the 4 people in the office know us both well - as THEY are also always getting the right mail to the wrong brother. Even Nassau N.Y. would be sufficient.

So much for that. I do not wish to embarrass anyone in CCGS, but I received a membership card last Friday, I believe, and today I have received another. No harm done - better two than none.

ELMER: I am pleased to have the Elmer family so carefully written out. It all agrees with what I have. If I said my line was from EDWARD-2 - it was a typographical error as I am definately from Samuel-2 who had son, Deacon Jonathan. My record came from Conklin Mann, once a contributing Editor of N.Y. G & B. He was related on the Brockway side (my gt g-mother, Lydia Brockway) - his wife, Mrs. Mann was related on the Ambler side - my own grandmother was Angeline Ambler - her mother a Waterbury. Abraham Ambler married Rhoda Keeler, dau. of Joseph Keeler and Abigail ELMER. If you have any interest in more detailed dates, etc., I have them in most cases. It seems odd that we do not have the family name of so many of the wives.

And it is a coincidence that the Elmers and Keelers were of Ridgefield and Wilton, Conn. For months I have been in correspondence with a lady in Danbury who found what we believe to be my "lost" Phillips ancestor. My Jos. Phillips was b. Conn.Jan. 1739 and she has found a Joseph b. Apr. 1739, in Wilton, where the above Elmers were. And last Sept. a friend and I drove down to Ridgebury and Danbury - but did not get as far as Wilton. Joseph Phillips married Dorcas Vickery whose family came to Ridgebury, Conn., then into Dutchess Co. - from Harwich. My Vickery line is very simple: George-1 of Hull, Mass.; Benjamin^2, to Harwich; Ichabod^3 from Harwich to Ridgebury - then, by 1741 into Dutchess Co. where his dau. Dorcas^4 was b. 1743 and where Joseph Phillips appears on the scene; married Dorcas and came up here. I wish more of my lines were that simple. I get Stephen Hopkins, of the "Mayflower," through the Vickery, Snow, Payne, lines. And the name Dorcas from the early Paynes.

One reason I do not have more complete Elmer line in my files is because I copied the direct line from the Elmer Genealogy and then spent my time on Edward's ancestry in England. So my file is almost entirely on the family in England including a searchers reports - all handwritten on thin paper - and, if you know British writing, you may know what it is like for even normal eyes to read. But I like British research - I have been there several times and am quite used to their way of doing genealogy. But with a thousand years of records it is difficult to pin down particular families.

Friends who lived near London and who had originally lived at Horninghold, a lovely hamlet in Northamptonshire, drove me up to Quinton from their home on Wimbledon, Surrey. The church is away from the village - the village might have been near the church in earlier centuries - but it stand alone among trees and the old graveyard.

I very much doubt that Edward-1 was b. in Braintree no matter what a correspondent of mine says. I have too many records from original sources in England - that the ELMERS, not Aylmers, were of Northants not to be misguided. In as much as even these records do not "pin down" our Edward, he certainly belong to Northants. I will try to enclose a little chart of about three generations of Elmers - you can accept it or not as ours - and I will be interested in what you think about it.

I thought of the Cape this morning as we "opened up" with rain, snow, sleet, and strong winds - and I know what you get on the Cape. But I finally ventured out about 11 a.m. - I am only a long block from the Post Office and stores - and it was not as bad as it sounded earlier. We are fortunate in Weather - very often the worst of a storm passes to the north of us. My last "Cape storm" was at the old cemetery at North Truro - looking for Vickery gravestones - found one, the wife of Rev. Jonathan - my family, but not my line. I have about every Vickery in print for the first 4 generations, I guess - on a very long chart made up from my files. Hope to get back to the Cape next year.

This may not reach you before Christmas - so have a Happy and Prosperous New Year - and good geneaogical results.

Sincerely,

Ralph

One of the partners in my company in N.Y.C. was Jim Readie - a "Geordie" - i.e. from Newcastle-on-Trune.. I thought of him when I first saw your name in CCGS.

4. Edward,
b. c1580 This is probably our Edward who came to AMERICA.

This is actually a "scratch sheet" as there may be errors. It is so difficult for me to copy as it means picking up and putting down the paper from which I am copying - with magnifying glass - a word at a time. But it will give you an idea of our EEdward's background. I have typed copy of the above mentioned wills sent to me by a lady researcher in Northampton in the 1950's. She did not try to prove our Edward's connection but sent me the records to let me use my own judgement. I do not think that there is any doubt about our Edward coming from Northamptonshire and I think it is another Edward who was born in Braintree. I believe I mentioned that all the Northants Elmers kept the name Elmer while the Aylmers kept that name except in one or two instances I read Aylmer alias Elmer.

Great Brington is a village not far from Quinton and is ancient - and some of the early Washingtons were there. (I have a Washington ancestress - in the Thomas Stanton, of Conn. family - her ancestry has been wrongly given so I have never found who she was.(

Eastham, Mass. 02642.

Dear Mrs. Bready:

Please pardon the above typing - it is my first letter for the day and I am then "all thumbs."

Thank you for your acjnowledgement of my check for membership renewal. I have received the Bulletins, et., and I enjoy them. I shall look for the membership card in due course.

When I first reced ved the sheets of members with the names of their ancestral families, I noted the ELMER family on yours. My line is Edward Elmer-1; Edwaed-2; Jonathan-3; Abigail-4, who married Joseph Keelerl. Rhoda Keeler mar. Abraham Ambler, Conn. to this town of Nassay - and only last year I had the gravestones of Abrahan abd Roda, my gt gt grandparents, noved from a field plot to the standard cemetery - the East Nassau Cemetery. The stones had been lying there for many years.

As to the Elmers. I lived in N.Y.C. for many years and, being a bacjelor, then and now, I had time to do a lot of research. And having been in World War L, in England, and for my last 20-odd years in N.Y.C. with a British firm, I made several trips to visit friends and to do research. However, mostof the research was done from N.Y.C. by correspondence. I had a search done on the Elmer family and I also visited the church where they attended - at Quinton, Northhamptonshire. I stayed with friends in Eimbledon Common, Surrey, and they were always interested in taking me to my "ancestral places."

I have recently corresponded with a Mr. Fuller, of Groton, Conn., who had a query in the "Nutmegger" (of the Conn. Soc. of Genealogists) - stating that Ed ward-1 was born in Braintreee, Essex, Eng. I disagree, I can go into it more throo ughly, but this is one good reason: Mr. F. attempts to claim the Aylmer ancestry - but I clain Northanptonsh ire. I have records from there a few generations back of Edward - right or wrong - but the name was always spelled ELMER - never Aylmer - while the family in Essex seems to have always been Aylmer. Much of my Elner data Northampton is from Wills - unfortunatly, for me, all handwritten on thin paper! It was done in the days when paper was scarce.

I would be glad to give you more details - I am sorry I do not have access to an Xerox but I will do the best I can.

Bain: We also had an early Bain family near here - from Scotland - would that be your line. They were well to do and has a carriage making busuness - I knew a descendant in N.Y. - Miss Moyxa Newell - the Moyca name from the old Dutch Huyck family.

I shall be interested in hearng from you.

a Merry Christmas - sincerely Ralph P

My dear Mrs. Bready,

Thank you for the will of Richard West and Philipa West and John White.
I could have gotten the will of John out of my Volume I. Just thought it might be handwritten.
A friend lent me a book of N.H. and Maine and it said that WHITE was one of the most common names in New England, and aren't we lucky to have such a good genealogy?
Now about your question re: Granger? I will have to write in the address when I get home as I am over at the cottage.
I think you should send for a list of searchers that they could provide you.
I have never worked around Columbus, I was in their library once for a little time and they do have the four White books. I know the names of a searcher in Washington County, Athens County and Belmont, Jefferson and Harrison County where I have had people but never in Columbus.
I am sorry and I just hated to write this letter. After you have been so good to me.
The Ohio Historical Society has a new building--last 12 years maybe. Library in on upper floor. The building isn't attractive to my way of thinking but the exhibit area is below ground and they have set up several very good programs like Regional libraries and all material is sent to them and they have gone to the counties in their own area and copied everything. In time it will have everything. Mr. Porter did that when he was the head of the Organization but he went on to Newport, R. I.

My dear Mrs. Bready,

Thank you very much for answering my query about the wife of John White. I had read in some very old Hartford Times that were given the library that people were asking about her ancestr~~a~~y about 1935.

I have Volume I and Volume II of the Descendants of John White. I think my father received his Mother's copies when she died in 1913 before I was born. I can always remember that we had them. I don't think my parents ever looked in them but when we moved to Ohio in 1934 they had a special observation in Ohio for 150 years for 1937 and a man from Sandusky took the part of Major Haffield White. Since my Dad's middle name was Haffield, I think my Mother looked at them and found out about the family.

At that time I had the books in 1946 to go into DAR on my Grandmother's papers for Major Haffield White and so I just kept them. Since then I have bought a copy as I can get them for my four girls and for Marietta College and the Campus Martius Museum in Marietta. They were asking to copy all of my records. I have my name on the list to get one for the Wenham Museum. I was there last spring and they had for death of Haffield White--"had no record". I sent them his obituary and his Society of Cincinnati papers but would like them to have at least Volume I. My father is born in Vol. I. I have visited the burial ground and the DAR had marked it. I bought a 1812 marker for 1976 for Pelatiah White for 1812 to be put up that year.

Two people that answered my query received their information from a book called JOHN BARBER WHITE ANCESTRY which A. L. White wrote in 1913. That would be 13 years after Vol. I. I guess that JOHN B. WHITE paid for the search in England. Goodspeeds can get me a copy and I just ordered it. Another lady wrote me that A.L. WHITE was a sister of her grandfather and she had met her many times. She quoted Volume IV.as you did.

I would love to have the wills and would be so pleased to have them.

I think it is wonderful that people can research more in England and I wonder why more people don't do it? This adds so much. I belong to the Bristol Genealogy group and they all went to Bristol,England last fall but they aren't sure that the first Henry Bristol even came from there????? They planted a tree there. It sounds kind of stupid for they would have all the members to underwrite somebody at least TRYING to search.

As I said this is my DAR and 1812 line and I consider this my line.

In 1964 I had a man that had done some work for me on my Mother's lines in Connecticut look up the wives of the Whites. Haffield's wife was Lydia Masters and her Mother remarried as his third wife, her cousin Samuel Lee. He built the beautiful Jeremiah Lee Mansion in Marblehead. Last spring I went there and it was the most beautiful home I was ever in, I do believe. I was amazed at the ability and the money these people had.

In Ohio we have the Ohio Genealogical Society and they have First Family of Ohio (FFO). I belong to that along with some early Marietta families. The man that signs the material is really strict and he says he admits things from this GENEALOGY as he uses it all the time and finds it most accurate! We sure are lucky to have such a good genealogy.

I'll enclose a stamp and let me know how much you have to pay to copy the wills. I would love to have time to go to all these places where my ancestors lived. BUt, would like to hire a driver!

Sincerely,
Patricia W. Lay

Prence a 'terrour to all evill-doers'

By ELISE BRETT
Staff Writer

EASTHAM — Thomas Prence of Eastham served 15 successive one-year terms as governor in the 17th century, when running for election to public office was not a popularity contest.

A contemporary called Prence "a terrour to evill doers." During his tenure the governor and his general court persecuted the Quakers, introduced property ownership as a qualfication for voting, increased the Sabbath restrictions on personal activitaies and forced King Philip, the chief of the Wampanoags, into such a disadvantageous treaty that some historians contend it was obtained under coercion.

Prence, it should be noted, was not governor of Massachusetts Colony, but of Plymouth Colony, which then covered the southeastern part of Massachusetts and convened its general court in Plymouth. To the north, Boston was "capital" of Massachusetts Colony which absorbed Plymouth Colony in 1692, 18 years after Prence's death.

Prence was born in England in 1600. Missing the Mayflower, he came over on the second ship, the Fortune, in November 1621. In 1624 he married Patience, the daughter of "Elder" William Brewster. Like many of his contemporaries, he had several marriages. After Patience's death he married Mary, daughter of William Collier, in 1635 and moved from Plymouth to Duxbury the same year. The family moved to Eastham (then Nauset) in 1644 when the town was founded, and Mary died in Eastham.

According to Frederick Freeman in the Annals of Barnstable County, "It is said that he married third, Mary, widow of Samuel Freeman," but the historian apparently could not find any verification of this marriage.

Prence had nine children — one son and eight daughters. His one son, also named Thomas, moved to England, but died young, leaving only one daughter. Thus the name died out in Eastham at an early date.

Prence went into politics at age 33 when he became an assistant to Gov. William Bradford. Prence kept that job until 1657 except for two terms in the Governor's chair in 1643 and 1638.

Prence , one of the original Nauset "old comers", moved his family to Eastham in 1644. According to historians, when a new town was founded, each family received a house lot of from one to 22 acres and a plot of land beyond the village boundaries to raise grain. Animals were grazed upon common lands. Prence, however, got 200 acres in the vicinity of Fort Hill.

"His home, razed in the 1840s, stood about 300 feet east of the present site of Eastham's information Booth, near the junction of Route 6 and Governor Prence Road," Berle Clemensen noted in an "Historic Resource Study" compiled for the Cape Cod National Seashore.

No one knows what the Prence homestead looked like, but a typical 17th century dwelling in Plymouth is described by George D. Langdon Jr. in "The Pilgrim Colony, a History of New Plymouth, 1620-1691."

He wrote, "On this house lot, the settler built his home, usually a simple frame structure covered with boards or shingles, with a central chimney rising in its center. Downstairs, two or three rooms, more in a few cases, provided living and cooking quarters for the family, and often sleeping facilities for the senior members of the household. Upstairs, in most homes, was either a sleeping loft or bedrooms for other members of the family.

The legend is that Prence had an orchard which included a pear tree, the object of a flowery poem written some 200 years later by Eastham's poetry writing town clerk, Heman Doane.

Prence must have been fond of his homestead on Fort Hill because when he was elected governor in 1657 he refused to leave Eastham and moveto the seat of government in Plymouth. Early records report that he got a dispensation from the general court permitting him to reside in Eastham.

Prence became a long-term governor upon the death of the Plymouth Colony's original governor Bradford. Political office was not looked upon as desirable by the early Plymouth Colony freemen, according to Langdon.

"At the first General Court, over which he presided after the death of Bradford, Prence asked for and was given legislation to repress Quaker activity in new Plymouth," Langdon said.

This was an attempt to keep Quakers out of the colony. Anyone bringing a Quaker into Plymouth by boat was fined 20 shillings per week so long as the Quaker remained, Langdon reported.

Any Quaker entering the colony was to be arrested, jailed, fed bread and water and kept imprisoned until he could pay the cost of his confinement and for transportation out of the area. In addition, anyone refusing the oath of fidelity to the government (Quakers usually refused to do this as they believed an oath was a sin) was fined 5 pounds.

By 1659 the General Court enacted more anti-Quaker laws. Town constables were ordered to seize Quaker literature. It became a crime to entertain a Quaker, a crime to loan a Quaker a horse and a crime for a Quaker to ride, Langdon said.

Finally in 1661 Quaker persecution in New England ceased because of pressure from England where a more enlightened attitude prevailed after Charles 11 came to the throne in 1660.

In 1670 Prence and the general court members had evidently had had enough of traveling down to Eastham whenever they wanted to see the governor (except in times when the general court was in session) because they voted that the governor must "reside at the seat of government," Freeman noted.

In June 1667, Langdon related, a rumor reached Plymouth that King Philip, the Indian, had agreed to help the French attack New England. The governor sent a troop of horse to bring Philip to Plymouth, and he came willingly. He denied the rumor and insisted it had been started by the Narragansett Indians to make trouble between himself and the English.

"The General Court accepted his professions of friendship but ordered him to assume part of the expense of the expedition sent to bring him to Plymouth," Langdon said. "The colony further warned him not to make trouble in the future."

In 1771 the lawmakers in Plymouth heard that Philip had a band of armed warriors near Swansea. They summoned Philip to Taunton to explain. He came, confessed he was preparing to make war and contended, according to Langdon quoting some early source, that this was not "grounded up on any injury or provocation, but from their own (the Indians') naughty harts."

The colony ordered the Wampanoags to surrender all their guns. Philip promised to so this, but apparently turned in only some of the weapons. In addition he complained to the Massachusetts Colony in Boston about his treatment by Plymouth.

The Plymouth government then called in Massachusetts and Connecticut representatives to "hear" the controversy between Plymouth and Philip, Langdon said. Plymouth won the case and Philip was ordered to obey the Plymouth magistrates.

A treaty was apparently forced on the Indian leader. "The treaty dictated harsh terms, unacceptably harsh for Philip to have signed freely," Langdon noted. "Such coercion as may have been used to secure his consent, the secretary of the general court, Nathanial Morton, did not choose to record."

Langdon, however, credits Prence with keeping the peace with the Wampanoags. Philip kept the treaty of 1671 for nearly two years after Prence's death.

Did you exult when Sadat and Begin embraced after Camp David? I didn't. The more they patted each other's back, the more I thought: "They're looking for a soft spot to plunge a knife." It is a mark of political innocence that Carter thought he had solved the riddle of the Middle East.

This is not a dissertation in favor of John Connally. Or Ted Kennedy. Or George Bush. Oh, no. I thought I owed it to you to confide my feelings about politics and politicians. I shudder when I listen to the campaign promises.

I don't even trust the rest of us as electorate. We'll vote for the guy who looks best on television.

Will of Joseph^{3} Pray   Probate Office, 7, 216.

In the Name of God Amen. The eleventh Day of Iuly Seventeen Hundred & fifty one, I Ioseph Pray of Berwick in the County of York Yeoman, being aged & well Stricken in years, but of perfect Mind & memory, Thanks be given unto God, Therefore calling unto Mind the Mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die and not knowing when my Change may come, Do make and ordain this my last Will & Testament, That is to Say principally & first of all, I give & recommend my Soul into the Hands of God that gave it; And my Body I recomend to the Earth to be buried in decent Christian Burial at the Discretion of my Executors hereafter mentioned nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I Shall receive the Same again by the Mighty Power of God; and as touching Such Worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this Life, I give demise and dispose of the Same in the following Manner & Form.

Imp^{r} I give & bequeath to my Wife all the Income of my Estate for her Maintenance during her Widowhood, if I Should die before her the Income thereof to be disposed by her among my Children as She Shall See meet.

2^{ly} I give to my Son Iohn Pray one Acre of Land whereon his Dwelling House now Stands, and Forty one Acres more Land beginning at Peter Knops Spring & from thence Eastward the Breadth of my Lot until Forty one Acres is Accomplished to be at his Dispose after the Decease of his Mother, only a Way excepted.

3^{ly} I give unto my Son Peter Pray Thirty five Acres of Land out of my Estate beginning at the Head thereof and running on a South West & by West Line down my Said Lot until the Same be accomplished on which Land his dwelling House now Stands, to be to his Dispose after his Mothers Decease.

4^{ly} I give unto my Son Samuel Pray all my Lands belonging to my Home State beginning at the River, and running to the head thereof, except what I have before given to my Sons John & Peter, only John is to have Liberty to cut Fire Wood off of Said Land for his own Fire and not for any other Use.

5^{ly} I give to my two Grandsons Peter Pray & Daniel Pray One Hundred pounds old Ten^{r} Money to be paid them by my Son Samuel Pray in equal Shares when they Shall come to lawful Age, and if they both die without Issue then the Said Money to return to my Said Son Samuel and his Heirs. Also I give to my two Grandsons Peter & Daniel Pray the Sum of Twenty pounds old Ten^{r} Money to be paid to them in equal Halves by my Son Peter Pray after they Shall come to lawful Age, and if they both die before that time without lawful Issue then y^{e} Said Twenty pounds to remain to my Son Peter & his Heirs.

6^{ly} I give my Right in the Saw Mill Standing on the Salmon Falls on the West Side of the River to my three Sons Iohn Samuel & Peter to their Dispose in equal Shares. Also all my Right in the Commons & undivided Lands in Berwick I give to them in equal Shares to be divided between them.

7^{ly} I give to my Daughters Ioanna Yeaton Mary Wallingford Martha Allen & Miriam Lord Ten pounds old Tenor each out of my Estate to be paid them by my Executors after my Wife's Decease, The Said Daughters to be paid by my three Sons in equal Shares.

8^{ly} My Will further is that my three Sons Iohn Samuel & Peter Shall pay all my just Debts & funeral Charges out of my Estate equally between them.

9^{ly} I give to my Wife all my live Stock of Creatures & all my Household Goods to her Dispose to & among my Children & GrandChildren as She 10^{ly} As to what Iron Work y^{t} I have I leave it with my three Sons to keep what each one has got of the Same.

11^{ly} And lastly, I make & ordain my Sons Iohn Pray and Samuel Pray to be my Sole Executors to this my last Will & Testament, ratifying & confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereto Set my Hand & Seal this eleventh Day of July in the twenty first Year of His Majestys Reign Annoq, Domini 1747.

In the name of God, Amen.
I Ira Pray of Sandwich, in the County of Carroll and State of New Hampshire, husbandman, being weak in body but of sound and perfect memory, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:
First, I give and bequeath unto my sons, Ebenezer K. Pray, of Bristol, N.H. James H. Pray of Rouse's Point, N.Y. George F. Pray, of Mecca, Trumbull Co. Ohio, Lewis Pray of Portland Maine, Charles E. Pray, late of Lynn Mass. and Martin B. Pray, of Alexandria, New Hampshire, unto each and severally the sum of one dollar. Also I give and bequeath unto my daughters Hannah J. Clark and Abbie M. Clark both of Lynn in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts unto each and severally the sum of one dollar, which said several legacies or sums of money I will and order to be paid in one year after my decease.

And lastly, as to all the rest residue and remainder of my personal estate whatsoever, after payment of my just debts, I give and bequeath the same to my beloved wife Nancy P. Pray, and I also give and bequeath to my said wife Nancy P. Pray all my homestead farm situated in said Sandwich whereon I now live; to have and to hold the same to her the said Nancy P. Pray and her heirs and assigns forever. My body I commit to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my beloved wife heretofore named, the said Nancy P. Pray whom I hereby appoint my sole executrix of this my last will and testament: hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirtieth day of July, A.D. 1872.

Ira Pray

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the abovenamed Ira Pray as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

bur. "Ye Old Settlers Burying Field" in Lancaster, Mass. (g.s.)
m. 21 Jan. 1629, at Wygan in Lancashire - Mary Platts, dau. of James and Martha (Ainsworth) Gawkroger, alias Platts.
bap. 15 Mar. 1607 ; d. 1674
(Her fam. appears to have been subsequently of the parish of Halifax in Yorkshire, some of whom are ment. in will of George Fairbanks of Sowerby, dated 1650.)

He came from England to Barbadoes in 1638; thence to Watertown, Mass. in 1640 where he owned more than ~~10~~ 26 acres of land. With others he bought from the Indians a large tract of land and became a founder of Lancaster, Mass., 1645/6; took oath of Fidelity, 1652. In Nov. 1653 he rec'd. gr. of land from inhabitants on condition that he build a "corn mill" which he built in season to commence grinding on 23d May 1654; the erection of a saw mill soon followed. "The town voted that if he would erect one he should have the grant of certa[illegible] privileges and a large tract of land lying near his mill, for him and his posterity forever, and to be more exactly recorded when exactly known. In consideration of these provisions 'Goodman Prescott' forthwith erected his mill." The stone of this mill was brought from England. He was an agriculturist and blacksmith as well as millwright. Adm. freeman 1669. Nuncupative will proved 20 Dec. 1681.

JOHN PRESCOTT
FOUNDER OF LANCASTER AND FIRST SETTLER
OF WORCESTER COUNTY
BORN AT STANDISH, LANCASHIRE, ENGLAND
DIED AT LANCASTER, MASSACHUSETTS, DEC. 1681.

Inspired by the love of liberty and the fear of God
This stout-hearted pioneer
Forsaking the pleasant vales of England
Took up his abode in the unbroken forest and encountered wild beast and savage to secure freedom for himself and his posterity.
His faith and virtues have been inherited by many descendants who in every generation have well served the state in war, in literature, at the bar, in the pulpit, in public life,

PRESCOTT

He brought with him from England a coat of mail, armor and habiliments complete, such as were worn by warriors of that and preceding ages: hence it is inferred that some of his ancestors had been warriors, and prob. had rec'd. the order of knighthood. It has been stated and believed that John himself served under Cromwell.

"Mr. Prescott, being a strong athletic man and of a stern countenance, whenever he had any difficulty with the Indians, would clothe himself with his coat of mail, helmet, cuirass and gorget, which gave him a fierce and frightful appearance. The Indians at one time having stolen from him a horse, he put on his armor and pursued them, and in a short time overtook them. They were surprised that he should venture to pursue them alone and a chief approached him with uplifted tomahawk. Mr. Prescott told him to strike, which he did, and finding the blow made no impression on his cap, was greatly astonished, and asked Mr. Prescott to let him put on, and then strike it while on his head, as he had done when on Mr. Prescott's head. The helmet being too small for the head of the Chief, the stroke settled the helmet down to his ears scraping off the skin on both sides of his head. The Indians then gave up his horse supposing Mr. Prescott to be something more than human."

Reference: CCGS Profile Sheet - Pray

Dear Mrs. Bready:

In reading over all of the profile sheets I find that you and I have the Prays as our common ancestors and I would like to exchange data with you on them. My lineage is as follows:

Quinton-1, Richard-2, John-3, Penelope-4 = John Aldrich, Jeremiah -5 Aldrich, Barnabas-6 Aldrich, Molly -7 Aldrich = Caleb Rawson, Barnabas-8 Rawson, Waldo-9 Rawson, Mary Imogene-10 Rawson = George C. Gordon, Alison Gordon-11 = Albert F. Sickman, me, Alison Gene Sickman-12 = Therman A. Franks, Jr.

Is your Burt of Springfield, Mass? If so I might have a tidbit here and there. I have items that would cross into the Chapin, Herrick, Wright lineage there.

Would delight in hearing from you and if you wish to have proof of my sincerity, just ask Charlie Allen. He will vouch for me for certain.

Am enclosing an SASE for your use. Anxious to hear from you.

Regards,

Alison

Mear Mrs. Bready:

Happy and very delighted to hear from you and so soon too! Hope to be as speedy in my reply.

Surprisingly enough the Pray is aligned with Aldrich which is later aligned with Rawson. Strange that Rawson and Pray are tangled up, but there you are small world right?

Yes Penelope Pray is a daughter of John and Sarah Pray. All I know is that they lived in Rhode Island. The Braintree Prays are a different line I think, although I did look into those since I own a copy of the Braintree Records.

Tell me about your burt lines. I have dibbles and dabbles of this and thant, and since my stamping ground is Springfield, I should be able to tell you a little about the joint. I was born in Spfld!

Stopped here and poked in the Pioneers of Me and NH by Pope, and also the Gen Dict of Me and NH which I own (copies of both). Very little to be had from these so feel that you should try to borrow the SHarbuck Genealogy and that of Hussey. Mary Hussey is listed as Mary Husse, and with the dates here, she may have been a cousin of the descendants of Christopher.

As for the Prays, I would like the Quinton data from you. I am attaching a sheet on what I found for Richard for you, plus a dab of this and that on the Prays that I do have here. Hope you can use this.

Now about the Deanes! Funny that you didn't list the female lines and after reading your list of families I remember seeing something I had on Dean and lo and behold I struck gold! You are again related to me!!!!!!! See this sheet~~s~~ I am attaching for you.

Won't write any more now as I do wish to get the sheets fixed up for you and continue with my pile of correspondence. Do you desire a bit more here than I have given you? I cannot really help beyond this much, but I may have a dab of stuff here and there for tidbits. No cost involved.

Regards,

Alison

Dear Mrs. Bready:

Thank you for the data on the Heard, Pray and Burt data in the Dean lines. I guess I wasn't very explicit about the Heard area! I am not a Heard, nor am I keep (?) any charts of such! I just haul out data where I find it and let the person who is the descendant go from there. I am somewhat of a computer-type person. I spit out data, when I have it to spit and let it go at that! I would never have time to do my own genealogy if I went to all the trouble to make charts on every name that I happen to have data on!

As to the birthplace of Richard-2 Pray, It is England, and his second wife was Hernden or Herenden.

Back to the Prays now. I do keep a Family Group Sheet on the children of the family of which I am a descendant of and I might add data to it from time to time, but not to the degree that I will go into minute detail. My sheets number over 61,000,000,000 so you can imagine how much space all these would take up if I have each sheet of this number completely done and cataloged, not to mention all the family group sheets of the brothers and sisters of my ancestors.

One of these days I must look into the History of Dover NH myself, but for other data not mentioned here. I will be in New England over the Xmas holidays, but I doubt I can manage a trip to the Cape as time won't permit all of this that I would like to do. I shall be tending to seeing my relatives in the Springfield area and also be making my headquarters at my aunt's in Hartford, Conn. My mother lives in Granby now as does my sister and my great aunt, so I will see them, plus my father's brother who lives in Springfield. In between seeing these people I hope to get in some research in the libraries and perhaps one day in NEHGS in Boston. My mother will go in with me and between the two of us we should be able to get a lot done. I am going armed with dimes and get as much as I can photocopied and do the sorting and reading later on.

I know that I will disappoint quite a few people because my time in NE will be very limited and I cannot get around with ease to see people I would like to see. I have numerous phone calls to make and will hope to meet with a couple of people in Hartford at the Connecticut State Library if time allows this.

Shall close and get on with the correspondence which is steadily g rowing larger and larger. Sunday I cleared out a mess of correspondence that I was handing on to, mainly people I had answered queries and really got nothing in common with them. I made out a file card with name and address, added interested names and dumped the letter. Easier to keep a file card on these so as to use as future reference if I need it.

Regards,

Alison
